AMERICAN FUNERAL RECORD

A READY REFERENCE DAY-BOOK FOR UNDERTAKERS

A few words of Explanation to the man who enters up the order for Funeral Arrangements:

This Record Book will be of great assistance to your profession in entering up funerals and arrangements for same, correctly, intelligently and completely. You will find it prudent to record all items that are given therein, as in doing this you will not only enhance the prestige of the profession, but also create admiration and confidence of your patrons in your work. Record items of a deceased are looked for at the Undertaker's quite frequently, and the more exact the record is kept with data that have bearing on the funeral, the better will be the results.

In entering up your work, observe the following:

State full name of the deceased on first line; also note on next line the relative position of same to the one the funeral is to be charged to; for instance: Husband of, wife of, son of, etc.

The two clauses, "Order given by," and "How secured," are important. They will assist you very materially in overcoming the embarrassment incident to asking security for an account.

The clause "Cause of Death" is very essential for several reasons: 1, to know whether the subject died of a contagious disease; 2, to adopt correct measures for embalming; 3, to ascertain necessity of disinfection, etc.

Occupation of the deceased, single or married, religion and age, are matters of biographical record and should be entered up most exact and correct in every case.

The pleasing and correct rotation, observed in the bill of items to be charged, is an essential and most practical feature of the chart, and this part of the record alone is worth the price of the book. Fill out such items as you were called upon to furnish, and leave the others blank. Read all items carefully when you render bill, in order to be sure that you have not omitted any charge. The extra lines on bill of items are for such charges as the printed items may not provide. You may, for instance, be called upon to charge outlays, such as Railroad Fares, Moneys Advanced, etc.

The Ledger part on bottom of each page will enable you to keep account of your entire funeral work in one book, though you may prefer to transfer the total of the bill as one item into your regular Ledger.

This Funeral Record has been compiled after laborious and close study into the proper requirements of your profession. It is the result of years of experience, and, if you will carefully enter up the spaces provided in this book, you will find that every item that might possibly be needed for future reference is recorded.

FUNERAL ETHICS

The average Funeral Director, while conversant with the details of funeral work, cannot fail to find the following Rules on Funeral Etiquette interesting reading matter, with the chances of finding among them some points, the close observance of which will be of benefit to him, to-wit:

In all things use good judgment and cool deliberation in performing your work, and remember that you are not called upon to console the bereaved, but to take care of the remains, and do that in the most competent and least ostentatious way.

Be courteous and polite under any and all circumstances, however trying. Refrain from alluding to your work as "a job;" it is not only bad form, but is also apt to offend your patrons. Term it "a call," "a funeral," or "an order."

Perform your work in a quiet and considerate manner, and make as few requests of the family as possible. Talk in an undertone while at the funeral house.

When selling the casket or coffin, do not be afraid to recommend the use of high-class goods. It will satisfy your customers better in the end and will prove an effective advertisement for yourself.

Take correct note of all arrangements for the funeral when the order for the casket is taken. Be sure that you have a clear understanding with your customer on all points pertaining to the funeral arrangements, and then note same in your Funeral Record Book. Also be careful that you have the correct spelling of name for the newspapers, etc. A memorandum sheet of the American Funeral Record will assist you greatly in these functions

Take note of as many of the biographical items, such as religion, age, occupation, etc., of the deceased as you can obtain by easy suasion and insert them in the proper spaces provided in this Record Book. Items of record of a deceased are often inquired for at the Undertaker's, and by keeping complete account and record of all things, your patrons will see convincingly that you are doing your work on up-to-date principles, and that a funeral is handled by you better than a mere "putting the body under ground."

Have leave-taking occur prior to arrival of friends for the funeral and attend to closing casket or sealing of steel caskets or metallic linings before the services begin. Avoid all delay, hitch or misunderstanding with your helpers. Instruct bearers, drivers and others beforehand.

Use Badge with delicate flowers and smilax on the door instead of the antiquated cloth crepe.

Lining with evergreen helps very materially to make a grave seem less distressing during interment.

A very desirable adjunct to your equipment is some matting, and possibly a canopy to use at the cemetery, in sunshine or storm. The bereavedwill appreciate it.

At the funeral services speeches of lodge members precede the sermon. If societies attend in a body, the principal services are usually held at the grave. Episcopal services are usually held at the house. Roman Catholic always at the church.

Have your hearse paralleled with the sidewalk. (Do not back it into the pavement like a moving van.)

Order of funeral cortege is best arranged as follows: Automobile with pall-bearers—hearse—chief mourners' auto—Minister's auto—autos of friends. If lodge members conduct the rites, the lodge members lead the procession.

Where the deceased is buried without any religious services, or where the mourners are unable to engage the services of a preacher, the undertaker may officiate and offer the prayer.

If remains are to be shipped, see to it that the departure from the house is set so as to be at the depot at least one-half hour before train time. This will give the undertaker a chance to see to arrangements in proper manner and without undue flurry.

Stillborns are buried by the undertaker alone. It is unusual that any of the family attend the interment.

Where bodies are neither embalmed nor put on ice, keep in coolest place possible, perhaps best between two open windows, with the sunshades drawn down as far as needed, and use a bleacher frequently over face and hands of the deceased.

Let the entire funeral be conducted in a quiet, well-ordered and dignified manner, and you will have conferred a lasting favor upon those who required the sorrowful need of your service. This is the best method of advertising an undertaker can employ, and it is the stepping-stone for sure success.

Albert Armstrong, Gem City Church Leader, Interred

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 17.—The pastors of two churches this afternoon joined in conducting the funeral of the late Albert W. Armstrong, who for two terms had been clerk of the sessions of the Presbyterian church here, and who was a prominent member of the interdenominational Men's club of Los Gatos. Rev. H. H. Wintler, pastor of the Los Gatos Presbyterian church, and the Rev. H. K. Hamilton, pastor of the Methodist-Congregational church, conducted the funeral, which was held in the Melvin chapel on est Main street.

Armstrong, who was the son of A. W. Armstrong, Sr., a big cattleman of the early days in the Salinas district, had an interesting career. At the age of 9 he was known in the Salinas valley as a skillful breaker of wild horses, and after that he was for several years a cowboy on the San Juan hills. For the past 11 years he was an orchardist on the Quito road, where he was widely respected as a neighbor and friend. He was active as an elder in the Presbyterian church.

Members of the official board of the Presbyterian church acted as pallbearers. They were: B. T. Stanley, Ralph Creffield, Frank Conclin, J. G. Hobbie, Carl Von Rosen, and A. R. Muir. Several numbers were sung by a quartet from the choir of that church, including the Misses Fern Nuss, Emily Baker and Messrs. H. L. Roberts and Edward Yocco.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anne Louise Armstrong, a sister, Mrs. Joseph De Brutz of San Jose; a daughter, Miss Ellen Armstrong of San Luis Obispo, and a son, Raymond Armstrong of Santa Rosa. He was 59 years old at the time of his death. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

25 Knights Templar in Uniform Assist in Funeral Service.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 23.—With 25 Knights Templar in uniform in attendance and the full ritual of the Masonic order observed, the funeral of the late Charles A. Dell yesterday afternoon in the Melvin funeral chapel was one of the most colorful seen here in many months.

Dell was a prominent Mason and Shriner, and his widow, Mrs. Addie Dell, is president of the Santa Clara valley "Daughters of the Nile" club, which is limited to the ladies in the families of Shriners.

The funeral was under the direction of Los Gatos lodge, No. 292, F. & A. M., with Percy G. Simpson, master; Herbert W. McAuley, chaplain; T. M. Widby, marshal, and H. C. Noble, senior warden. The Blue lodge ritual was observed. The pall bearers were: Bert H. Welch, I. D. Mabie, George Shaner, E. W. Vodden, Arch Cilker, Charles E. Flagg and S. M. Hatter. Those present included 25 Knights Templar in uniform, under Joseph T. W. Coble, commander, and Carl Linderoth, captain general, of San Jose commandery, No. 10. Interment was in Los Gatos cemetery.

A beautiful feature of the funeral was the singing of Edward Yocco, accompanied by Miss Emily Baker on the organ.

Dell came to Los Gatos in 1895, and some years later returned east to remain nine years. Again hearing the call of California, he came back to Los Gatos and established a grocery store near the auto camp, on property which he subsequently sub-let for an Associated Oil station.

Dell in 1901 married Miss Addie Frost, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Horace Frost of Los Gatos. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Cora Alice Edgell of Battle Creek, Mich., and Miss Elsie Dell.

He was a life member of Prairie lodge, No. 92, F. & A. M., of Galesburg, Kalamazoo county Mich.; Islam Temple of San Francisco; Los Gatos chapter, No. 128, Order of Eastern Star; San Jose commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar; Rose Croix, No. 7, White Shrine; Howard chapter, No. 14, Royal Arch, and San Jose council, No. 20, R. & S. GEM CITY REPAIR MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH BY AUTO

Charles E. Webster Killed in Own Garage Pit While Working Alone.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Feb. 28.—Charles E. Webster, proprietor of the City Garage, West Main street, was instantly killed this morning when an automobile on which he was working fell on him. An inquest held this afternoon by Deputy Coroner Charles B. Williams, at the Melvin undertaking establishment, resulted in a verdict of accidental death.

Funeral arrangements are being held in abeyance, pending the arrival of Mrs. Dora M. Webster, his widow, from San Luis Obispo, where she has been visiting relatives.

ALONE AT TIME.

Webster, who was alone at the time, was in the garage pit, working on the transmission of a car. Investigation showed that the brakes had not been set, nor the wheels blocked. The car for some unexplained reason rolled backward until the front wheels dropped into the pit, and Webster's head was crushed between the crank case and the concrete wall.

The body was discovered by William A. Taylor, driver for the Shell Oil company, who summoned Bert Ferini, Denny Rauch, and Marvin Lasley from a nearby taxi stand. After they had rolled the machine away, W. D. Poole assisted in lifting the body to the ambulance. Dr. Horace Jones, who had been summoned, reported that Webster had been dead for about an hour.

LEAVES WIDOW, DAUGHTER.

Webster is survived by his widow and a daughter, Dorothea, who is a pupil in the Los Gatos grammar school. The family resides on the Shannon road. Dorothea was taken charge of by Mrs. Ruth Page, Webster's sister-in-law, pending the arrival of Mrs. Webster. Mrs. Page is in charge of the cafeteria at the grammar school.

Webster had lived in Los Gatos for eight years, and for about six years had conducted the garage. Prior to that he had been employed by the Peninsular Rapid Transit stage company. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Weidemann of San Francisco and Mrs. Tillie McMurrer of Oakland. His mother, Mrs. Martha Webster, resides in Concord, Contra Costa county.

Charles E. Webster, owner of the City garage on West Main street, died Wednesday morning from a basal skull fracture, caused when a heavy automobile fell on his head. Webster was working in the pit at his garage with the wheel of the auto crosswise on the pit on 2 by 12 inch planks, it was testified at the coroner's inquest held at the Melvin chapel Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.

In the opinion of those who found the body the brakes had not been set on the auto and it had moved back and forth on the boards. The wheels slipped from the boards, trapping Webster's head between the crank case and the cement pit walls, causing death instantly. The body lay in the pit for an hour or more before it was found, as Webster was working alone in the garage.

William Taylor, distributing salesman for the Shell oil company, called between 10:30 and 11 a. m. to deliver gasoline to the City garage, as was his custom. He honked for Webstr and when the garage man did not appear he went inside. He saw a light burning in the pit and noticed the man pinned underneath.

Taylor called for help to taxi drivers Denny Rauch, Bert Ferini and Marvin Lasley, who hurried to the garage. They raised the auto with a crane, which released the dead man. The Melvin ambulance had been summoned and the remains taken to the Melvin undertaking parlors.

Webster, who lived on Shannon road, is survived by his wife and a daughter. Mrs. Webster, who was visiting in San Luis Obispo, was expected to arrive here last night at 9 o'clock and the daughter was attending school here at the time of the accident.

Lloyd E. Smith, who was a partner with John N. Hall, has purchased the interest of Hall in the Gilroy Evening Dispatch and last Saturday assumed sole ownership of Southern Santa Clara county's thriving daily newspaper.

Hall at the same time purchased the Santa Cruz Herald from W. M. Hines and took up ownership and management of that weekly newspaper on March 1. "Billy" Hines built up the Herald until it ranked with the best weeklies in this part of the state. He has taken a position in charge of advertising and

William Taylor, distributing salesman for the Shell oil company, called between 10:30 and 11 a. m. to deliver gasoline to the City garage, as was his custom. He honked for Webstr and when the garage man did not appear he went inside. He saw a light burning in the pit and noticed the man pinned underneath.

Taylor called for help to taxi drivers Denny Rauch, Bert Ferini and Marvin Lasley, who hurried to the garage. They raised the auto with a crane, which released the dead man. The Melvin ambulance had been summoned and the remains taken to the Melvin undertaking parlors.

Webster, who lived on Shannon road, is survived by his wife and a daughter. Mrs. Webster, who was visiting in San Luis Obispo, was expected to arrive here last night at 9 o'clock and the daughter was attending school here at the time of the accident.

GEM CITY REPAIR MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH BY AUTO

Charles E. Webster Killed in Own Garage Pit While Working Alone.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Feb. 28.—Charles E. Webster, proprietor of the City Garage, West Main street, was instantly killed this morning when an automobile on which he was working fell on him. An inquest held this afternoon by Deputy Coroner Charles B. Williams, at the Melvin undertaking establishment, resulted in a verdict of accidental death.

Funeral arrangements are being held in abeyance, pending the arrival of Mrs. Dora M. Webster, his widow, from San Luis Obispo, where she has been visiting relatives.

ALONE AT TIME.

Webster, who was alone at the time, was in the garage pit, working on the transmission of a car. Investigation showed that the brakes had not been set, nor the wheels blocked. The car for some unexplained reason rolled backward until the front wheels dropped into the pit, and Webster's head was crushed between the crank case and the concrete wall.

The body was discovered by William A. Taylor, driver for the Shell

Charles E. Webster, owner of the City garage on West Main street, died Wednesday morning from a basal skull fracture, caused when a heavy automobile fell on his head. Webster was working in the pit at his garage with the wheel of the auto crosswise on the pit on 2 by 12 inch planks, it was testified at the coroner's inquest held at the Melvin chapel Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.

In the opinion of those who found the body the brakes had not been set on the auto and it had moved back and forth on the boards. The wheels slipped from the boards, trapping Webster's head between the crank case and the cement pit walls, causing death instantly. The body lay in the pit for an hour or more before it was found, as Webster was working alone in the garage.

William Taylor, distributing salesman for the Shell oil company, called between 10:30 and 11 a. m. to deliver gasoline to the City garage, as was his custom. He honked for Webstr and when the garage man did not appear he went inside. He saw a light burning in the pit and noticed the man pinned underneath.

Webster Funeral Held on Friday

Funeral services for the late Charles E. Webster, Los Gatos garage man, were held from the Melvin funeral chapel Friday at 2 p. m. and interment followed in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Webster was killed last Tuesday morning when the auto on which he was working slipped forward, the front wheels dropping into the pit, and Webster's head was caught between the crank case and the concrete walls of the pit.

He was working alone in the shop and his body was not found until nearly an hour afterward when William Taylor, Shell oil company salesman, came to deliver gasoline to the garage. Cab drivers raised the machine on a crane above the pit and W. D. Poole helped raise the body from the pit, where it fell when the auto was lifted.

Webster had lived in Los Gatos about 8 years and was proprietor of the City Garage for some six years. He is survived by his wife, Dora M. Webster, and a daughter, Dorothea, 15, who is a student in the elementary school, two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Weidmann of San Francisco, and Mrs. Tille McMurrier of Oakland, and his mother, Mrs. Marthat Webster of Concord, Contra Costa county.

The deceased was a native of San Francisco and was 37 years old.

The pall bearers at the funeral were Howard Masters, Ray Howell, Harry Boone, Ed Gordon, E. Marmon and Dr. A. F. McMillan. Miss Fern Nuss, accompanied by Miss Emily Baker, sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "Beautiful Isle of

POET'S OWN POEM READ AT FUNERAL

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, March 2.—A poem which Debora Otis, aged 82, composed two months ago, was read yesterday afternoon during her funeral held here by the Friends Meeting. She wrote the poem to greet the new year, of which she was destined to know only two months. She died February 28. The body will be sent Monday to New York for burial in an Auburn cemetery.

Miss Otis came to Santa Clara valley in 1887 and was constantly connected with literary circles. She was a member of two reading circles, one of which met in San Jose and the other in her home up to a week before her death. Her father was a Friends minister in New Bedford.

The lines read at the funeral were:

TO THE NEW YEAR.

Ruler of all the starry realm,
Guide of our mother earth—
What am I in Thy all-wise plan,
Am I of little worth?

That tuoches with the Infinite;

Through it we reach to Thee,
Help cometh from above;
It comes to us in courage,
It comes to us in love.

Oh, give us love and courage
To battle for the right—
Lessening the woes of others
Will help us do our "mite."

And so we look to Thee for help,
For courage and for cheer
To face all problems that arise
Throughout the coming year.

Come on! Good 1930,
Roll onward with the rest,
We'll each help to make it
Of every year the best.

POET'S OWN POEM READ AT FUNERAL

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, March 2.—A poem which Debora Otis, aged 82, composed two months ago, was read yesterday afternoon during her funeral held here by the Friends Meeting. She wrote the poem to greet the new year, of which she was destined to know only two months. She died February 28. The body will be sent Monday to New York for burial in an Auburn cemetery.

Miss Otis came to Santa Clara valley in 1887 and was constantly connected with literary circles. She was a member of two reading circles, one of which met in San Jose and the other in her home up to a week before her death. Her father was a Friends minister in New Bedford.

The lines read at the funeral were:

TO THE NEW YEAR.

Ruler of all the starry realm,
Guide of our mother earth—
What am I in Thy all-wise plan,
Am I of little worth?

It cannot be, for in each heart
Is placed a spark divine,
That tuoches with the Infinite;
I know it is in mine.

Through it we reach to Thee,
Help cometh from above;
It comes to us in courage,
It comes to us in love.

Oh, give us love and courage
To battle for the right—
Lessening the woes of others
Will help us do our "mite."

And so we look to Thee for help,
For courage and for cheer
To face all problems that arise
Throughout the coming year.

Come on! Good 1930,
Roll onward with the rest,

Los Gatos Legion Buries John Rose

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, March 17.—Los Gatos post, American Legion, cooperated in rendering honor to John Rose, aged pioneer teamster, Saturday, in services held at St. Mary's Catholic church. Rose, who was born in the Azores Islands, was deeply devoted to the land of his adoption, and when his son-in-law, Clifford H. The pall bearers were Hans E. Nielsen, post commander; Dick Swanson, post adjutant; John Whisenant, E. K. Sullivan, H. Owen Smith and John Cliff. Leonard & L Bianchetta

A requiem high mass was said for the repose of his soul, by Rev. William Keller, of St. Mary's Catholic church.

Rose is survived by his widow, Mrs. Theresa Rose; a son, John V. Rose; and two daughters, Mrs. C. B. Taylor, and Mrs. C. H. Johnston.

ROSE—In Los Gatos, Cal., March 9, 1930, John Rose, beloved husband of Thresa V. Rose and loving father of John V. Rose and Mrs. C. B. Taylor, both of Sheridan, Wyo., and Mrs. Clifford H. Johnston of Los Gatos, a native of Azores Islands, aged 80 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral on Saturday at 9 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street, Los Gatos, thence to St. Mary's Church, Los Gatos, where a requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul at 9:15 a. m. CIVIL WAR VET'S FUNERAL TODAY

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, April 29.—Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning for the late Clark Wesley Haight, 87, civil war veteran, from the Melvin chapel, 300 West Main street, at 10 o'clock. The funeral will be conducted under joint G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps auspices by the Rev. A. Sterling and Rev. W. W. Nunn. Inurnment will be at Olivet Memorial park.

The passing of Haight, who was a past adjutant of E. O. C. Ord post, Grand Army of the Republic of this city, leaves only one member of the post resident in Los Gatos, where once it numbered close to 100 members. The post has seven surviving members, in all, including three nonagenarians.

OLDEST IS 93.

Commander William H. Lawrence, who lives in San Jose, is the oldest in age as well as in membership, and is 93 years old. Walker Templeton, of Santa Clara, is 90, as is Alonza J. Hale of Sunnyvale. Other members are Lewis Dille, of Los Gatos, post chaplain; C. E. Case of Campbell; A. F. Hill, of Campbell, and W. D. Williams of Campbell.

Haight was a musician, playing the fife for company F, Eighth Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He served in 30 engagements, beginning with the second battle of Bull Run, his service extending from September 6, 1861, to September 22, 1864, when he was mustered out at the close of hostilities at Petersburg, Virginia.

Haight came to Los Gatos first in 1889, starting a blacksmith shop, but moved soon with his wife, Mrs. Olive Wood Haight, and three children to Eugene, Oregon, where his wife died.

RETURNED IN 1918.

In 1911, he married Mrs. Mary E. Flynn, in Oakland. He returned to Los Gatos in 1918 and purchased a home on Nicholson avenue, where he resided up to the time of his death. He died Sunday evening, after an illness of 14 weeks.

Haight is survived by his widow, who lives in the family home. He was the father of Mrs. Alice Gibson, Rainier, Ore., and of Mrs. Bertha Downing of Deadwood, Ore. He was the grandfather of Mrs. J. C. Owens of Norfolk, Calif.; Laura Mabel Bonser and Elmo Gibson, both of whom reside in Rainier. He was a native of New York.

A Smile or Two

A girl who had forged a check in order to buy herself some good clothes wore in court was one she had purchased with the forged check, one of those flapper affairs that do not reach half a yard to the knee and take about half a yard of cloth to make. The judge smiled. "You may be crazy about scant garment and small clothes," he remarked, "but it is very apparent you are not wrapped up in them."

A famous surgeon had been summoned to perform an operation on a man who had been injured in a railroad accident. The surgeon arrived at the hospital and was told that the patient was in a very serious condition. "Is he conscious?" asked the surgeon. "Yes," replied the nurse, "but he is not expected to live." "Then," said the surgeon, "I'll operate at once."

Mrs. Jones—"Why, Mrs. Smith, I thought you were going to the theater tonight?"

Mrs. Smith—"I was, but I changed my mind. I thought I'd rather stay home and read a book."

Mrs. Jones—"Oh, I'm so glad. I've been wanting to borrow a book for a long time."

Mrs. Brown—"Why, Mrs. Jones, I thought you were going to the theater tonight?"

Mrs. Jones—"I was, but I changed my mind. I thought I'd rather stay home and read a book."

Mrs. Brown—"Oh, I'm so glad. I've been wanting to borrow a book for a long time."

Years young are living today, hale and happy, who never had tennis courts at school, but they had trees to look at.

Men of "progress" gaze into this crystal: See those factories peopled with laborers—behold the population of San Jose—swell the population by which these expected purchasers of homes can make a living and pay for these homes—for all who come this way will not be millionaires. Behold those buildings along Santa Clara street, that stare at visitors out of vacant, hungry-looking windows, and whose front resembles a gambler's face who in a game of chance has been frozen out. Again look, O men of progress, see yourselves tearing nothing but the beauty-spot, lavring described to meet the scene above. Try and sell to them! visitor's eye. That such ravings as And know that is only madly typed as the above is done by unimaginative LOVELESS, HENRIETTA

F. E. SEELY, NOTED FIGURE OF LOS GATOS, SUCCUMBS

Wealthy But Frugal Aged Resident to Be Interred This Morning.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, May 19.—Funeral services for one of Los Gatos' most interesting personalities, Frank Edward Seely, will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from the Melvin chapel, 300 West Main street. Rev. H. K. Hamilton, pastor of the Methodist - Congregational church, will conduct the services. Mrs. Ethel Rickett will have charge of the music program. Seely died Friday.

Seely, who has been prominent in newspapers for several years through plans to leave his home in Fairview plaza as a home for aged people, leaves no immediate relatives in this state. While he habitually practiced the greatest frugality in his daily living, he is reported to have left an estate worth approximately $100,000.

BELIEVER IN OCCULT.

Seely at first planned to have his home in charge of the King's Daughters, but no definite agreement has ever been announced. He stipulated that he was to have living quarters at the home. The establishment of the home was contingent on raising a trust fund for its maintenance.

Although alert mentally, and of unusual business ability, Seely was a firm believer in the occult, and among his more intimate acquaintances would tell of conferences he had with unseen forces to whom he usually referred as "They." He for years had provided free correspondence study for those desiring it in a new system of psychological self-improvement.

AIDED STUDENTS.

Seely was 90 years old at the time of his death and was a native of New York. He had been a resident of California for 30 years and amassed a comfortable fortune in San Francisco in a barber supply business which he built up through an original type of advertising of his own writing.

His life was one of interesting contradictions and, while considered penurious by some, he quietly assisted several young men through college. Although he never bet, he was a great admirer of fine horses and in a life apparently devoid of normal recreations he found time to visit horse shows whenever opportunity was afforded in his later years.

Nine months ago Seely moved to the Burbank district in San Jose, where he lived until the time of his death. His sister, Miss Louesa N. Seely, who lived with him in Los Gatos, died in September, 1924.

SEELY—In San Jose, Cal., May 16, 1930, Frank Edward Seely of Los Gatos, a native of New York, aged 90 years, 3 months and 14 days.
Friends are invited to attend the funeral tomorrow, Tuesday, at 11 a. m., from the Melvin funeral chapel, 300 W. Main street, at Tait avenue, Los Gatos. Interment Los Gatos cemetery.

Death Takes Aged Leader

Mrs. Mercy A. B. Cutting, an active leader in church and W. C. T. U. circles, died yesterday at her home in Campbell.

MRS. CUTTING OF CAMPBELL PASSES

Special to the Mercury Herald.

CAMPBELL, May 21.—Mrs. Mercy Anna Bourne Cutting, for many years an active worker in W. C. T. U. circles and the Congregational church, died this afternoon, following an illness of seven months.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Congregational church of Campbell, and will be conducted by the Rev. J. H. Bennett, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Benjamin St. John, pastor of the Congregational church at Woodside, near Redwood City.

The latter minister was a friend of the deceased for many years. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Edwin H. Melvin, mortician of Los Gatos.

FROM PURITAN STOCK.

Mrs. Cutting was the widow of the late Charles D. Cutting. She was born in East Falmouth, on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, August 12, 1846. She was of Puritan stock, dating back to the colonial days of the 17th century, when Richard Bourne came to America as a missionary to the Marshpee Indians. At his own expense this ancestor purchased the ground occupied by the tribe, and for many successive generations the Bournes had charge of the settlement. The Indians were still living on Cape Cod in Anna Cutting's childhood.

Her parents moved to Winneshiek county, Iowa, in 1856, when that state was thrown open for pioneer settlement. After education at Cresco she taught school for a time, and then married C. D. Cutting of Riceville, Iowa, in 1870. The farm home was distinctive for its hospitality.

The family, consisting of father, mother and five sons, moved on westward to California in 1893. An orchard was purchased on Hamilton avenue, and later when the two youngest sons were at Stanford, a home was established in Palo Alto. A few years were also spent in Pacific Grove.

Brother of Dead Woman Located

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, June 12.—After a two weeks' search, in which the Portland, Oregon, police department figured as a locator of lost persons, Edwin H. Melvin, local mortician, located relatives of Mrs. Belva Reynolds, who died suddenly at a local resort, and notified her brother, Frank E. Risin, a public accountant of Hollywood. Risin at once came to Los Gatos and the funeral for Mrs. Reynolds was held today from the Melvin chapel. The Rev. H. H. Wintler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated at the services. The interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Reynolds died suddenly of heart failure, before the arrival of her baggage from San Francisco. Finding indications that she had resided in Portland, Melvin sent a list of names from a notebook to the police department of that city, and requested their co-operation in locating the woman's relatives.

Mrs. Reynolds, who was a widow, was the daughter of Mrs. Jane Bugbee of Salem, Ore.

Woman Cook, 40, Dies Suddenly in Local Resort

Miss Belva Reynolds, 40 years old, who was a cook's helper at a local resort, passed away suddenly Saturday night of a heart attack. Funeral services have been held up pending word from relatives or friends if any can be found.

Miss Reynolds came from a San Francisco employment agency recently. The Melvin ambulance was called but Miss Reynolds was dead when they reached the resort. A coroner's inquest was held Monday at 1:30 at the Melvin chapel.

FROSH-FACULTY PARTIES AT S. J. STATE POPULAR

The frosh-faculty parties have been among the most popular of social activities on the San Jose State college campus this year.

Last Friday evening two delightful parties were given for 90 freshman students, one at the home of Miss Ruth Wooster of the college faculty, and the other at the Lions' den in the foothills, where Miss Meta Goldsmith, Miss Luella Hayes and Dr. Lubowsky entertained.

Orchestras were engaged for both places, and dancing, games, entertainment, and refreshments made the evening complete.

At midnight the groups went en masse to the college campus to assist in decorating the float for the fiesta parade.

Woman Cook, 40, Dies Suddenly in Local Resort

Miss Belva Reynolds, 40 years old, who was a cook's helper at a local resort, passed away suddenly Saturday night of a heart attack. Funeral services have been held up pending word from relatives or friends if any can be found.

Miss Reynolds came from a San Francisco employment agency recently. The Melvin ambulance was called but Miss Reynolds was dead when they reached the resort. A coroner's inquest was held Monday at 1:30 at the Melvin chapel.

Brother of Dead Woman Located

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, June 12.—After a two weeks' search, in which the Portland, Oregon, police department figured as a locator of lost persons, Edwin H. Melvin, local mortician, located relatives of Mrs. Belva Reynolds, who died suddenly at a local resort, and notified her brother, Frank E. Risin, a public accountant of Hollywood. Risin at once came to Los Gatos and the funeral for Mrs. Reynolds was held today from the Melvin chapel. The Rev. H. H. Wintler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated at the services. The interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Reynolds died suddenly of heart failure, before the arrival of her baggage from San Francisco. Finding indications that she had resided in Portland, Melvin sent a list of names from a notebook to the police department of that city, and requested their co-operation in locating the woman's relatives.

Mrs. Reynolds, who was a widow, was the daughter of Mrs. Jane Bugbee of Salem, Ore.

BOY, 3, SUCCUMBS FROM ANT POISON

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Aug. 22.—With his grief-stricken parents and a few family friends in attendance, funeral rites were held this afternoon in the Melvin chapel for little Teddy Lee Roe, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Roe of Campbell, who died last night at the county hospital from the effects of eating ant poison. An inquest was held this morning at the Melvin chapel, the finding being that Teddy died from arsenic, self-administered accidentally.

Teddy found the ant poison, consisting of arsenic mixed with honey and water, deposited in little jars around the house of a neighbor, last Monday. He responded at first to household remedies, and was expected to recover, but Dr. Walter I. Merrill, when called, ordered him taken to the hospital, where he lingered until last night.

His death is the second tragedy in a month in his family group, as a cousin, the five-year-old son of J. F. Auld, living nearby, died in July after a short illness. The funeral today was conducted by Mrs. Ada Bohrman of the Pentecostal mission in Campbell.

G W Roe's Bro-in-law is John F. Auld, ~~Box 504~~ ~~3rd St - Campbell~~

Mr. Edwin H. Melvin,
Los Gatos, Cal.

Dear Mr. Melvin;-

Enclosed is the statement you gave our Mr. Hansen Aug. 30, when he called for the remains of the late John Craig amounting to $30.00.

We had instructions to call for this body and so advised the doctor at the time he informed us that Mr. Craig had died. You will have to look to the hospital for this amount as it was necessary for us to re-inbalm the remains before we could put it in our parlors and so advised the members of the family and charged them accordingly which met with their approval.

Yours very truly,
McAvoy O'Hara & Co.,

S. F. BROKER DIES BUILDING HOME

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 9.—Funeral services will be held Monday, at noon, in Los Gatos for the late Alvin H. Levintritt, retired San Francisco broker, who passed away Sunday from a sudden heart attack. Levintritt, who was busy superintending the construction of a palatial country home for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Levintritt, formerly of San Francisco, at "Chestnut Hill" on the Greenwood road, suffered a serious attack of heart trouble last week and was removed to a hospital, where the end came Sunday.

Meanwhile Levintritt's brothers are rushing to Los Gatos from various parts of the world. Roy Levintritt of New York will be here in time for the funeral. After some discussion, however, it was decided not to await the arrival of Edgar Levintritt, who resides in Venice, Italy, or of Mortimer C. Levintritt, whose home is in Paris, France.

Levintritt, who was a retired investment broker of San Francisco, where he was born, came to Los Gatos four months ago, and acquired 40 acres on the Greenwood road, adjoining the Sutton place, with the purpose of building a beautiful country home in the Tudor style in which his parents could spent their declining years. Pending construction, he leased the Sutton place, where his parents are residing, and where he himself lived until a few years before his death. Levintritt was 47 years old, and was unmarried.

The funeral will be held from the Melvin chapel, on West Main street. Interment will be in the Home of Peace cemetery, near San Francisco.

Leventritt Dies Before New Home Plans are Made

Alvin H. Leventritt, 47, investment specialist and former real estate broker of New York, passed away in Los Gatos Sunday night following a sudden heart attack. He had been ill only a short time.

Only a few months ago Mr. Leventritt bought the T. K. Black ranch on Greenwood road, two acres from Willard Jefferson and about 10 acres from William Sporleder which he proposed to develop into a fine estate. He took down the old Black family residence which was built on the rambling terrace, and spent much time enlarging the place and having tree surgery done.

Chestnut Hill the property was named because of the huge grove of chestnuts which were planted 41 years ago by Mr. Black. This grove of 100 trees is believed to be the largest in the west.

Mr. Leventritt was born in San Francisco, the son of Marion and Frances Leventritt, who lived with their son at Box 57, Greenwood road. He is also survived by three brothers, Edgar M., Roy and Mortimer C.

LEVENTRITT—In Los Gatos, Calif., Sunday, September 7, 1930, Alvin H., beloved son of Marion and Frances; and loving brother of Edgar M; Roy; and Mortimer C.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral next Monday, Sept. 15th, at 2 P. M. in the Memorial Chapel of Peace cemetery at Colma.

Melvin Funeral chapel service, Los Gatos.

The funeral services will be held next Monday at 2 p. m. in the memorial chapel of the Home of Peace cemetery under arrangement of the Melvin funeral chapel of Los Gatos.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 21.—One of the largest funerals of the year in Los Gatos was held Friday afternoon for the late William B. Williams, aged member of E. O. C. Ord post, G. A. R. The services, which were held in the Melvin chapel, on West Main street, were conducted by the Rev. H. H. Wintler and the Rev. Alonzo Sterling. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

The army's "goodnight" bugle call, "Taps," was sounded at the cemetery by Ray Howse, bugler of Los Gatos post. American Legion. The pallbearers, all members of the American Legion, were L. R. McQueen, Neal W. McGrady, Herbert L. Roberts, Gildo George Panighetti, C. T. Blake and L. G. Casaletto. The members of Ord post, G. A. R., marched behind the casket as honorary pallbearers. A beautiful feature of the funeral was a solo by Mrs. Genevieve Case, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Harriet Baird. The casket was buried in a profusion of floral tributes.

The Rev. Wintler spoke of the "coming home" of the veteran, whose wife preceded him in death by eight years. Rev. Sterling, who spent his youth near the Wisconsin town from which Williams enlisted in the civil war, gave an eloquent tribute to the boys of '61.

SAN JOSE MERCURY HERALD:

DAVID BELL, 89, SARATOGA CIVIC LEADER, PASSES

Brief Illness Brings Death to Esteemed Member of Foothill Community.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

SARATOGA, Oct. 9. — David Cooper Bell, for nearly a quarter of a century an esteemed member of the Saratoga community, died shortly after noon today, at the age of 89.

While his death brought a shock to a wide circle of friends, it was not wholly unexpected as he had been critically ill for ten days.

The funeral and interment will be held next Tuesday in Minneapolis, and the body will be shipped east tomorrow by the Melvin undertaking establishment.

Bell was one of a group of middle westerners who have been prominent in the development of this part of the valley. He was an intimate friend of the late G. A. Wood, of Saratoga, and was a business partner in his younger days of A. B. Nettleton, uncle of Miss Lyra Mills, prominent club woman of Saratoga.

CAME HERE IN 1906.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell established their Saratoga home, "Bellgrove," in 1906, coming here with their son, Charles C. Bell. Charles C. Bell died in 1921 and Mrs. Bell in 1925.

Born in New York, David C. Bell went to Minneapolis seventy years ago at the age of 19 and went into business in a general store with his brother, the late John E. Bell. Later John Bell went into banking, and David C. Bell, after establishing a linseed oil business with Nettleton, founded the David C. Bell Investment company, a large financial company still carried on by Bell's adopted son, Walter Eggleston, and other relatives.

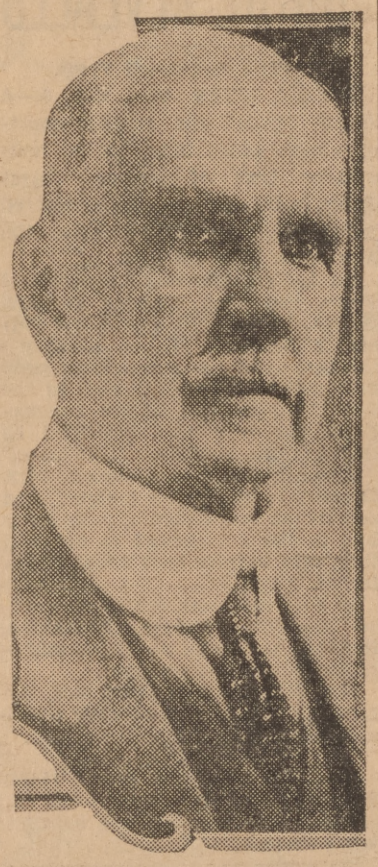
On several occasions Bell was sent abroad as a special emissary of the United States. Representing the Chicago world's fair of 1893, he made an extended tour of Europe and the Levant.

ACTIVE IN COMMUNITY.

In Saratoga, until advancing age sapped his vitality, David Bell was active in community affairs. Together with the late George A. Wood, he interested local capital in establishing the Saratoga Inn, founded originally to provide accommodations for visitors to the Saratoga Blossom Festival and other community events. He was actively interested in the Blossom Festivals, and was an early president of the festival organization.

Always a staunch church worker, Bell organized and taught one of the largest Bible classes in Minneapolis, in the Sunday school of the Plymouth Congregational church of that city. He also was one of the founders of the Young Men's Christian Association in Minneapolis. His occasional visits to the Minnesota metropolis always received prominent attention from civic organizations. His body will be accompanied east by Mrs. A. H. Hall, sister of Mrs. Charles C. Bell.

Death Takes Saratoga Man



David Cooper Bell, prominent in the life of Saratoga for the last quarter century, died shortly after noon yesterday at Bellgrove, his picturesque Saratoga estate.

Funeral services for the late David Cooper Bell, esteemed Saratoga resident, were held in Minneapolis, Minn., Tuesday.

For almost a quarter of a century Mr. Bell made his home here, where he succumbed Thursday at the age of 89. His death was the result of an illness which had confined him to his home for several weeks.

One of the first presidents of the Saratoga Blossom Festival and who with the late G. A. Wood was a founder of the Saratoga Inn, Mr. Bell did much for the benefit of the Funeral services for the late David Cooper Bell, esteemed Saratoga resident, were held in Minneapolis, Minn., Tuesday.

One of the first presidents of the Saratoga Blossom Festival and who with the late G. A. Wood was a founder of the Saratoga Inn, Mr. Bell did much for the benefit of the

FOURTH 'WANT-AD' BRIDE REVEALED

By The Associated Press.

EAGLE RIVER, Wis., Oct. 9.—A fourth "bride" and another courtship were added today to the honeymoon trail of George (Jiggs) Perry, want-ad Don Juan, wanted for the slaying of his bigamous wife, Mrs. Cora Belle Hackett.

St. Louis police said they learned Perry had been married to Mrs. Harriet Milligan, 40, a St. Louis widow, in Belleville, Ill., on Monday—the same day the decomposed body of a woman found last week in the Lac Du Flambeau Indian reservation near here was identified as that of Mrs. Hackett.

Another St. Louis woman, Mrs. Dorothy E. Hagerty, a divorcee, and mother of two children, said Perry had proposed marriage to her and they were to have been married yesterday.

In both instances, the usual want-ad insertion—"Woman Companion, Refined, to Travel to California"—provided the introduction.

Mrs. Hagerty said Perry told her he was to inherit an $800,000 estate after he had been married a year.

One accident for every 14,000 miles operated by commercial vehicles in Chicago was one month's safety record.

In Fatal Auto Crash

Henry J. Musgrave, 55, who was killed early yesterday when he responded to an appeal for help from Miss Antoinette Zillmer (lower), whose car had run out of gas in front of his home. While pouring gas into the tank of the car, Musgrave was fatally injured when it was struck by another from the rear.

Pays With Life for Chivalry Toward Girl Who Asks Aid

H. J. Musgrave of Los Gatos Killed Pouring Gas Into Girl's Stalled Car.

Struck and Fatally Injured When Hit by Another Car From Rear.

His obliging response when awakened by an appeal from a young college girl that her automobile had run out of gasoline early yesterday morning cost the life of Henry J. Musgrave, 55, San Francisco jeweler residing on the Los Gatos road.

He was fatally injured when the girl's car was struck by another as he was pouring gasoline into the tank, and was pronounced dead at the San Jose hospital shortly afterward.

GIRL ASKS AID.

The girl to whose plight Musgrave had chivalrously responded was Miss Antoinette Zillmer, 19, daughter of Dr. A. L. W. Zillmer of Los Gatos, a student at San Jose state college. She had been visiting with other girls in San Jose and about 1 o'clock in the morning left alone in her roadster to drive to her Los Gatos home.

About three miles east of Los Gatos her car stopped, out of gas. She knocked at the door of the nearest home, which proved to be that of Musgrave, and succeeded in arousing him. He carried the gasoline to her car for her, and was standing on the running board, pouring the gasoline into the tank under the seat when another car hurtled into it from the rear.

THROWN FROM CAR.

The impact threw Musgrave some 10 or 12 feet and sent one of the three occupants of the other car crashing through the windshield. The car then careened across the road and into an orchard, where it struck and broke off a tree before coming to a stop.

Miss Zillmer, standing alongside her automobile, escaped injury.

The driver of the second car was E. J. McGough, 222 Caldwell avenue, Los Gatos. With him were Robert Thomas, of the same address, and C. L. Loomis, 55 Polk street, San Francisco. Loomis, who was hurled through the windshield, was the only one of the three seriously hurt. He was treated at the San Jose hospital for severe cuts from the glass.

FOUND DEAD.

Rushed unconscious to the San Jose hospital in an ambulance, Musgrave was pronounced dead upon arrival. He had suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries.

Miss Zillmer, prostrated by the shock, was taken to her home and was confined to her bed yesterday.

State Patrolman John Sansone investigated the accident and interrogated McGough. He said he was blinded by the lights of another car approaching from the opposite direction, and failed to see Miss Zillmer's car.

LEADING MASON.

Musgrave, owner of a jewelry store at 278 Post street, San Francisco, purchased the Los Gatos home but a month ago and came there with his family to reside. He was a leader in the Masonic

George Roll, clerk at the place, was locked up in a room at the rear. The roll out of the safe vanished with the strangers.

It was estimated that $400 was obtained by the holdup men, although some estimates were about $1500 had been obtained.

Roll escaped through a window and summoned aid. He said that the strangers placed a $5 bill on the counter as he opened the store this morning at 6 o'clock.

After he had opened the safe, the men pointed a gun at him and told him to turn over the roll. Then they locked him up.

EVIDENCE DIFFERS IN DEATH QUIZ OF MERCY AUTO CRASH

Girl, Whom Victim Was Aiding Says Other Car Traveling at High Speed.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Nov. 3.—Widely divergent testimony was offered today at the inquest into the death of Henry J. Musgrave, who was killed early Sunday morning on an errand of mercy when run down by a car driven by E. J. McGough, on the Los Gatos highway. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict that Musgrave's death was due to "rupture of the liver resulting from being struck by an automobile driven by E. J. McGough."

Musgrave, aroused at 1:30 a. m. Sunday by Miss Antoinette Zillmer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. W. Zillmer of Los Gatos, was filling her car with gasoline at a point near his home, when McGough struck the car, hurling Musgrave to the pavement. Miss Zillmer, who is a student at the San Jose State college, was returning home from a visit with girl friends when her car ran out of gas. She went to the nearest house, which happened to be the Musgrave residence.

CAR OFF PAVEMENT.

Placed on the stand, Miss Zillmer, who was accompanied by her father, gave a straight-forward account of the accident. Her car, she testified, was run to one side of the road, as close as possible to the street car tracks, and off the pavement. Pressed as to whether one wheel was on the pavement, she stated she was not sure, but thought it was entirely clear. The lights on her car were out. She saw the lights of the other car coming down the highway at a speed she estimated at 55 miles an hour. Seeing a collision was inevitable, she turned and called to Musgrave to look out, but it was too late. The second car, a closed four-passenger sedan, struck her light roadster with such force that it was driven across the tracks and into an orchard. Seeing Musgrave lying on the ground, she rushed to the other car and opened the door, demanding that they take Musgrave to the hospital. She testified to seeing liquid lying on the floor of the car. After some grudging remarks, the occupants got out and started to investigate.

REFUSES TO TESTIFY.

McGough, after admitting he was driving the second car, claimed his constitutional right to avoid giving testimony and was excused. Robert E. Thomas, owner of the car, and who was a passenger with C. L. Loomis of San Francisco, at first asked to be excused, but was informed the law required him to testify.

Thomas claimed that the second car was traveling 35 miles an hour, and that Miss Zillmer's machine had both rear wheels on the highway. He noted the speed several times by looking at the speedometer. Asked why he looked at the speedometer when the machine was traveling only 35 miles an hour, he replied that this was second nature to him. Both he and Loomis testified that they had left the Thomas residence near the accident at 11 o'clock, for a drive, and had driven to San Jose and back, without stopping anywhere or having any other passengers.

The inquest was conducted by Deputy Coroner Charles Williams. The family of the deceased was represented at the inquest by Brooks Tompkins, attorney. Those acting on the jury at the inquest, which was held at the Melvin chapel, were T. T. Campbell, Jess Graves, C. Ugland, Thomas Handerkin, R. L. Scott, F. N. Countryman, A. S. Mason, W. H. Hamilton, G. W. Gray and I. A. Shafer.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR H. J. MUSGRAVE

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Nov. 4.—The body of Henry J. Musgrave, latest victim of reckless motorists in this county, this afternoon was laid to rest in the Los Gatos cemetery, following impressive Masonic rites at the Melvin chapel on West Main street. Musgrave is survived by his widow, Mrs. Izetta L. Musgrave, and a son and daughter, Henry John Musgrave Jr., and Enid Catherin Musgrave. He was the brother of Mrs. A. E. Collins of Rocklin, California, Rose Shephard, Amy Chapman and Albert Musgrave of San Francisco.

The funeral was conducted by William Griffith, master of Mission lodge, No. 169, F. & A. M., San Francisco, of which Musgrave was a member. Musgrave was a thirty-second degree Mason and one of the founders of the Sciots, as well as a Shriner. For many years he was a resident of San Mateo, and the pall bearers were brother Masons from that city: Charles A. Wegener, John C. Gard, Ferdinand Moulin, Henry D. Ascher, George A. Kartell, and George E. Riddle, master of San Mateo lodge, No. 226, F. & A. M. William L. Weitz, of San Mateo, sang two solos, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love."

Musgrave was summoned from his home early Sunday morning by a young woman motorist who had run out of gasoline nearby on the San Jose-Los Gatos highway. While he was filling the tank of the car, it was struck by an auto obile driven by E. J. McGough at a speed estimated at 55 miles an hour. Musgrave died before he arrived at the hospital. Testimony at the inquest was to the effect that a broken bottle was in the car. The traffic officer investigating the case was not called on to testify.

brother, Mrs. A. E. Collins of Rocklin, Rose Shepherd, Amy Chapman and Albert Musgrave of San Francisco.

Funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Melvin funeral chapel in Los Gatos under the direction of the Mission Masonic lodge.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR H. J. MUSGRAVE

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Nov. 4.—The body of Henry J. Musgrave, latest victim of reckless motorists in this county, this afternoon was laid to rest in the Los Gatos cemetery, following impressive Masonic rites at the Melvin chapel on West Main street. Musgrave is survived by his widow, Mrs. Izetta L. Musgrave, and a son and daughter, Henry John Musgrave Jr., and Enid Catherin Musgrave. He was the brother of Mrs. A. E. Collins of Rocklin, California, Rose Shephard, Amy Chapman and Albert Musgrave of San Francisco.

The funeral was conducted by William Griffith, master of Mission lodge, No. 169, F. & A. M., San Francisco, of which Musgrave was a member. Musgrave was a thirty-second degree Mason and one of the founders of the Sciots, as well as a Shriner. For many years he was a resident of San Mateo, and the pall bearers were brother Masons from that city: Charles A. Wegener, John C. Gard, Ferdinand Moulin, Henry D. Ascher, George A. Kartell, and George E. Riddle, master of San Mateo lodge, No. 226, F. & A. M. William L. Weitz, of San Mateo, sang two solos, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and "Sweet Peace, the Gift of God's Love."

Musgrave was summoned from his home early Sunday morning by a young woman motorist who had run out of gasoline nearby on the San Jose-Los Gatos highway. While he was filling the tank of the car, it was struck by an auto obile driven by E. J. McGough at a speed estimated at 55 miles an hour. Musgrave died before he arrived at the hospital. Testimony at the inquest was to the effect that a broken bottle was in the car. The traffic officer investigating the case was not called on to testify.

terday morning when two strangers walked into the V. & T. Smoke Shop, 297 Grand avenue, and held up the place.
George Roll, clerk at the place, was locked up in a room at the rear. The roll out of the safe vanished with the strangers.
It was estimated that $400 was obtained by the holdup men, although some estimates were about $1500 had been obtained.
Roll escaped through a window and summoned aid. He said that the strangers placed a $5 bill on the counter as he opened the store this morning at 6 o'clock.
After he had opened the safe, the men pointed a gun at him and told him to turn over the roll. Then they locked him up.

Nov. 12,

A NEW YORK

NEW YORK. — A few questions about New York to consider in an idle moment:

Why do they call it Madison Square Garden when it is 25 blocks from Madison Square?

Why don't they have green lines to show the way from Grand Central terminal to the street?

Why do hotels spend thousands to give their guests every service and then allow high rate taxicabs to stand at their door?

Why are the most beautiful homes on Fifth avenue closed most of the year?

Why do first editions of morning newspapers cost a nickel when the more complete final editions sell for two cents?

Why are heated cabs never warm?

Why is it so difficult to find hot biscuits with friend chicken and cream gravy in New York restaurants?

Why should show girls be so thrilled about gangsters who really have no courage unless they are full of dope?

Why do they give teas for movie stars who have to be coached on what to say to interviewers?

Why does Rudy Vallee have to shut his eyes when he sings?

LOS GATOS, Nov. 29.—Death has claimed two old-timers of this district in the passing of Jacob E. Loomer, 88, at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Downing, of the Union district, and the passing of Octave Joseph Francis, who died yesterday at his home on the Shannon road.

A requiem high mass will be said for the repose of Francis' soul at 9 a. m. Monday, at St. Mary's church, Los Gatos.

The funeral of Loomer will be held at 2 o'clock Monday, from the Melvin chapel, 300 West Main street. The Rev. N. E. Gibbs, pastor of the Methodist church, will conduct his funeral.

Francis' home for many years was on the site of the present Union district school, and was the center of much hospitality. His marriage to Miss Adelaide Charlotte LaMontagne was the first wedding celebrated in this district. Mrs. Francis died in 1929.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral on Monday, December 1, at 9:45 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street at Tait avenue, thence to St. Mary's Church, Los Gatos, at 10 a. m., where a low requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Campbell Youth Exonerated for Father's Death

Julius Strobl, 16, of Campbell last Friday evening fatally wounded his step-father, J. C. Miller, 45, in preventing the latter from murdering Mrs. Mary Miller, the boy's mother The attack took place in the Miller cottage on the Paul Marston ranch, near Campbell. The body was shipped Monday by the Melvin undertaking establishment to Gilroy for interment in the Odd Fellows cemetery there. Interment services were held at the grave side.

Julius Strobl was exonerated by the coroner's jury at the inquest held Tuesday in San Jose.

The first intimation of the tragedy was a hurry call from George Marston about 7 o'clock for the Melvin ambulance to take care of an "accident." Melvin and Dr. F. R. Anderson, of Campbell, arrived about the same time, but Miller was in a dying condition. Broken crockery, thrown by the man in his drunken rage, littered the floor. Miller rang up the sheriff's office and Deputy Sheriff Ray Hicks responded.

According to the unshaken story of the boy, Miller, in a drunken fury, was about to throw a heavy can of vegetables at Mrs. Miller, who was crouched in the pantry, her escape by the door being cut off by her husband. Strobl, a large knife in his hand, rushed at the man in time to prevent the latter from throwing his missle.

Miller, together with his step-son, was employed on the Marston ranch. A year ago last December Miller was seriously ill from pneumonia, and the boy was taken from school to run the place. On his recovery, Miller objected to the boy's returning to school.

J. Claud Miller was a native of Detroit, Michigan, and was aged 44. He is survived by his widow and a daughter, Miss Elsie Marie Miller, and his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Miller. Interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery, at Gilroy, in the Miller family plot.

J. MANNING, COUNCILMAN, PASSES AWAY

Los Gatos lost a councilman and highly respected citizen early Saturday morning in the sudden death of James DuBois Manning. The funeral was held privately Tuesday morning, from the Melvin chapel. In respect to the councilman's memory, the city council Monday evening immediately adjourned until Wednesday evening, the day after the funeral.

For 39 years Manning was a highly regarded resident of Los Gatos. Mr. and Mrs. Manning came to this city from Sonoma county, where they had lived for two years after coming from New York. While personally interested in community welfare and development, he took no active part in political life until the last municipal election, when he yielded to the persuasion of friends and ran for the city council together with H. A. Wilder, a fellow resident of the Almond Grove section, and was elected. He faithfully attended to his duties on the council, and took an active share in its deliberations.

Four years ago, while engaged in construction work, he fell from a roof and fractured a leg. While he recovered from his injuries, he never returned to active work and had lived a semi-retired life. He had no active fraternal organizations, but had a wide acquaintance throughout the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning recently received congratulations on their fifty-third wedding anniversary.

Retiring early Saturday night, the councilman awoke shortly before midnight and complained of not feeling well. Mrs. Manning called a physician, but death intervened in a short time.

Manning was a native of New York, aged 73. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary L. Manning, and a daughter, Mrs. Grace Brown, wife of Leo Brown of this city.

Funeral Held

Professor E. A. Rogers, of Montezuma, conducted the funeral service Tuesday at the Melvin chapel. The deceased, who was known as a man who never used profane language, and who never drank or smoked, was not affiliated with any church or lodge. The chapel was filled with sorrowing friends of the family.

Lloyd Juhnke, director of music and dramatic arts at Montezuma, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Ricketts at the organ. The pall bearers were from the relatives and close family friends of the deceased.

QUESTIONED SIX HOURS.

They were questioned six hours at the federal district attorney's office by the agents, who had been at work more than a month on the case. Likewise J. J. Harrison, head of a private detective agency, and his wife were summoned to the inquiry.

The narcotic detail was believed today to have returned to Washington. Local officials of the government said they knew nothing of the raids, and the impounding of private papers belonging to Bull and Mrs. Sidley. It was understood an assistant attorney general of the United States had come here to direct the investigation.

PERSONAL CODE.

John E. Kehoe, described by Bull as his counsel, said he was informed the government had "mistakenly" thought a secret code in use between Bull and Mrs. Sidley somehow was connected with the inquiry into smuggling. This code, he said, really was to convey private messages involving the pending suit for divorce of Mrs. Sidley against Dr. John Streeter Sidley of Racine, Wis., her husband. Bull, he said, was handling the suit for Mrs. Sidley.

Fatally Burned in Needless Effort to Rescue Wife

Roused from sleep by flames, Vernon Theissen, aged 26, last Saturday rushed from his week-end home near Holy City, and then, overcome by the fear his wife was in the blazing cabin, he rushed back and was fatally burned. Theissen, dazed by the smoke and suddenness of the emergency, forgot he had only a few minutes before bidden goodbye to his wife, when she left for a short hike with friends.

Thiessen and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Thiessen, with a party of friends had come to Thiessen's cottage for the week-end. While his wife and guests went for a walk, Thiessen stayed behind to heat some water on a kerosene stove. The stove flared and set fire to the cabin. Thiessen awoke in time to save himself, but was stricken with sudden panic in the idea that his wife was in the cottage, and half asleep, dashed back.

Passers-by rushed Thiessen to the Los Gatos hospital. He had breathed flame, however, in his frantic groping in the blazing cabin, and despite the efforts of Dr. E. M. Miller, who was called to attend him, the injured man passed away some hours after the accident.

An inquest yesterday afternoon at the Melvin chapel resulted in a verdict of accidental death. The funeral, which will be held in San Francisco, has not yet been arranged. The body was taken to the Melvin establishment.

Death of Cabin Fire Victim Is Held Accidental

"Accidental death from the inhalation of flames" was the coroner's jury verdict at the inquest held at Los Gatos yesterday into the death of Vernon V. Thiessen, 25, San Francisco laundry manager who was fatally burned in one of two freak Santa Cruz mountain cabin fires last week-end.

Thiessen died Monday at midnight in the Los Gatos general hospital from second degree burns of the face and lungs suffered when his Redwood Estates cabin caught fire in a gas stove blast Sunday afternoon while he lay asleep. He was rescued by his wife and a party of friends returning from a hike, but too late.

Fred Baumgartner, 30, caretaker on a ranch near Wrights, is still in a critical condition at the county hospital with first and second degree burns of the face, hands and arms.

He was sprayed with flaming gasoline when he accidentally discharged a rifle into a gasoline stove in his lonely cabin, and drove six miles for aid although all the skin had been burned from his hands. He was given first aid at the Los Gatos hospital, where he was rushed by friends, and was later transferred to the county hospital.

H. E. Melvin of Los Gatos shipped the body of Thiessen to San Francisco for bural yesterday after the inquest.

THIESSEN—In this city, February 16, 1931, Vern U. (George) Thiessen, beloved husband of Marguerite Thiessen, loving father of Evelyn and Virginia Thiessen, a native of Minnesota, aged 37 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral services Friday, February 20, at 9 a. m. at the chapel of Julius S. Godeau, Inc., 41 Van Ness ave., thence to St. Boniface's Church, where mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul. Interment, Holy Cross Cemetery.

Inquest Slated Today in Death From Cabin Fire

An inquest will be held today a the Melvin chapel, Los Gatos, into the death of Fred Baumgardner, 30, who died at the county hospital Wednesday night from pneumonia which followed severe burns. FEB 27 1931

Baumgardner, who was also known as Fred Ham, was caretaker on a ranch near Wrights, in the Santa Cruz mountains, scene two weeks ago of two freak fires, both fatal. He is survived by his mother in his native country, Switzerland, and other relatives on whose arrival funeral arrangements are pending.

Baumgardner was fatally burned when a gasoline stove in his lonely mountain cabin was exploded by an accidental discharge from a rifle he was loading. He drove six miles for help, and was brought to the Los Gatos hospital for first aid treatment by friends at Wrights.

The man also was known as Fred Ham, using his second name because of the implication on his calling, gardening, made by his surname.

Vernon Thiessen, 23, of San Francisco, lost his life after a similar fire the same day at Redwood Estates, receiving burns that resulted in his death two nights later from an oil stove blast in his summer cabin.

LOS GATOS WIDOW COMMITS SUICIDE

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, March 3.—An inquest will be held this Wednesday into the death of Mrs. Emily Anderson Edwards, 60, a widow, who committed suicide by hanging herself yesterday noon at her home here.

Believed despondent over ill health which had confined her to bed for two months, Mrs. Edwards, the mother of three children, waited until her attendant, Mrs. Thelma Adams, had left the house to go shopping, and hanged herself by a rope tied to a rafter in the basement. Her body was discovered by her son, Walter, local bank employe, and her daughter, Georgia, when they came home for lunch.

BORN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Another daughter is living in San Francisco, Miss Bertha Edwards, and a brother and a sister of Mrs. Edwards also are surviving, Mrs. Flora Duff and James H. Anderson of San Francisco.

Mrs. Edwards was a native of San Francisco and a graduate of the old San Jose Normal school. She had been a widow since 1912, when her husband, A. E. Edwards, then a prominent merchant, died. She had lived in Los Gatos for 25 years, and was prominent in social circles, with many friends throughout the valley.

Although she had been ill for many months Mrs. Edwards had given no signs of intention to take her life, according to her children and to Dr. E. M. Miller, who attended her.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at the Melvin chapel in Los Gatos, with interment in Cypress Lawn cemetery. The Rev. A. H. Winkler will officiate at the ceremony, set for 11 o'clock.

Last Rites Held for Mrs. Edwards

Impressive funeral services were held last Thursday for the late Mrs. Emily Anderson Edwards, beloved club leader, at the Melvin Chapel. The chapel was thronged by friends of Mrs. Edwards.

The Rev. H. H. Wintler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke with feeling of the beautiful spirit of Mrs. Edwards, of whom her friends remarked they never heard her speak an unkind word about any one. John Houghton sang "Crossing the Bar," and "Lead Kindly Light."

The pall bearers were George R. Lewis, J. J. Stanfield, E. F. Colvin, Walter Young, Craig Kennedy, and Charles Gertridge. The casket was hidden in a profusion of beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Edwards, who died on Tuesday of last week, was the widow of the late A. E. Edwards. She is survived by her son, Walter Edwards of Los Gatos and two daughters, Miss Georgia Edwards of Los Gatos, and Miss Bertha Edwards of San Francisco. A sister, Mrs. Flora Duff, and a brother, James H. Anderson, reside in San Francisco.

EDWARDS—In Los Gatos, Cal., March 3, 1931, Emily Anderson Edwards, mother of Georgia M., Bertha J. and Walter A. Edwards; sister of Mrs. Flora Duff and James H. Anderson of San Francisco, a native of San Francisco, aged 60 years. Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Thursday) at 11 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, Los Gatos, followed by services in the Cypress Cemetery Chapel, Colma, at 1 p. m.

LOS GATOS WIDOW COMMITS SUICIDE

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, March 3.—An inquest will be held this Wednesday into the death of Mrs. Emily Anderson Edwards, 60, a widow, who committed suicide by hanging herself yesterday noon at her home here.

Believed despondent over ill health which had confined her to bed for two months, Mrs. Edwards, the mother of three children, waited until her attendant, Mrs. Thelma Adams, had left the house to go shopping, and hanged herself by a rope tied to a rafter in the basement. Her body was discovered by her son, Walter, local bank employe, and her daughter, Georgia, when they came home for lunch.

BORN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Another daughter is living in San Francisco, Miss Bertha Edwards, and a brother and a sister of Mrs. Edwards also are surviving, Mrs. Flora Duff and James H. Anderson of San Francisco.

Mrs. Edwards was a native of San Francisco and a graduate of the old San Jose Normal school. She had been a widow since 1912, when her husband, A. E. Edwards, then a prominent merchant, died. She had lived in Los Gatos for 25 years, and was prominent in social circles, with many friends throughout the valley.

Although she had been ill for many months Mrs. Edwards had given no signs of intention to take her life, according to her children and to Dr. E. M. Miller, who attended her.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at the Melvin chapel in Los Gatos, with interment in Cypress Lawn cemetery. The Rev. A. H. Winkler will officiate at the ceremony, set for 11 o'clock.

Last Rites Held for Mrs. Edwards

Impressive funeral services were held last Thursday for the late Mrs. Emily Anderson Edwards, beloved club leader, at the Melvin Chapel. The chapel was thronged by friends of Mrs. Edwards.

The Rev. H. H. Wintler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke with feeling of the beautiful spirit of Mrs. Edwards, of whom her friends remarked they never heard her speak an unkind word about any one. John Houghton sang "Crossing the Bar," and "Lead Kindly Light."

The pall bearers were George R. Lewis, J. J. Stanfield, E. F. Colvin, Walter Young, Craig Kennedy, and Charles Gertridge. The casket was hidden in a profusion of beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Edwards, who died on Tuesday of last week, was the widow of the late A. E. Edwards. She is survived by her son, Walter Edwards of Los Gatos and two daughters, Miss Georgia Edwards of Los Gatos, and Miss Bertha Edwards of San Francisco. A sister, Mrs. Flora Duff, and a brother, James H. Anderson, reside in San Francisco.

EDWARDS—In Los Gatos, Cal., March 3, 1931, Emily Anderson Edwards, mother of Georgia M., Bertha J. and Walter A. Edwards; sister of Mrs. Flora Duff and James H. Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Thursday) at 11 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, Los Gatos, followed by services in the Cypress Cemetery Chapel, Colma, at 1 p. m.

Impressive Rites Mark Funeral of Civil War Soldier

With the impressive rites of the G. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps, and the Daughters of Veterans, Los Gatos, on Monday morning laid to his final rest Lewis Dille, civil war heavy artilleryman, in the Los Gatos cemetery. Dille's death leaves only one veteran of the civil war living in Los Gatos, and four living members of E. O. C. Ord post, No. 82, of the G. A. R. Ord post, of Los Gatos, now has on its rolls the post commander, William H. Lawrence, of San Jose, 94 years old; C. E. Case, of Campbell; J. A. Thoms, of Culver City; and Theodore Alonzo Sheffer, of Los Gatos.

Melvin chapel, on West Main street, was crowded with mourners, when Post Commander Lawrence, accompanied by T. A. Shaeffer and C. E. Case, slowly marched up the aisle, followed by the officers of the W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. With unfaltering voices, the aged "boys of '65" read the lines of the funeral service, and members of the Relief Corps joined with the veterans in placing the blooms symbolic of love, purity and patriotism on the breast of their departed comrade. In those taking part in the program, many in the audience could visualize the sturdy young men and vivacious belles of the days when war tore apart the country, and when the wooden ships of the United States navy fought bravely but ineffectively against the world's first ironclad, in the hands of the Confederate states.

The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. N. E. Gibbs, pastor of Methodist-Congregational church who based his remarks on the 14th chapter of St. John, beginning "Let not your heart be troubled." The funeral hymns were sung by Mrs. Conn, Mrs. Ethel Ricketts, and Frederick G. Hitt, who also presided at the organ. Members of the Women's Relief Corps, No. 51, and of Anna Ella Carroll chapter No. 1 of the Ladies of the G. A. R. attended the funeral. The rites at the graveside were conducted by members of San Jose Tent, Daughters of Veterans.

Lewis Dille enlisted at the age of 17, and served as a private in Company 1, first Ohio artillery, from 1862 to the end of the war. He was with the force that took Greeneville, Tennessee, when General Morgan, the noted Confederate raider, was killed. He enjoyd the distinction of having voted for President Lincoln, although he was not of age when Lincoln was assassinated. He voted while on active service, under special congressional provisions allowing soldiers to vote.

The funeral was remarkable for the many beautiful floral pieces attesting to the affection in which the deceased was held. Among the tributes was one from Los Gatos post, No. 158, American Legion. The Legion was represented at the funeral by Major H. S. Hostetter, past adjutant of the post, and one of its most respected members.

Lewis Dille is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Annie B. Warren, of Los Gatos, and a grandson, Neil D. Warren. His wife, Mrs. Louisa P. Dille, died in 1922. Dille, who was born in Morgan county, Ohio, came to Los Gatos 11 years ago from Forest Grove, Oregon, and bought a home on Johnson avenue. He had been ill for some time, and his death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Warren. He was 85 years old.

The pall bearers at the Lewis Dille funeral were Frank Campbell, E. Owen Woods, S. E. Mack, J. A. Wanzer, John Metzler and Charles Jackson.

Funeral Is Held for Campbell Resident

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, June 11.—Funeral services were held Thursday at 9 a. m. for Mrs. Ane Puppich, Winchester road recluse who died Monday night after a paralytic stroke, from the Melvin parlors in Los Gatos.

The Rev. David Todd Gillmor will officiate at the services, which will be followed by interment in the family plot at Fresno, where the body will be shipped. Peter V. Popovich, a nephew, arrived from Los Angeles today to make the funeral arrangements. He is the sole heir, executor and administrator of Mrs. Puppich's estate, which includes property in Campbell and bank deposits.

CAMPBELL, June 8.—Found unconscious in her lonely home on Winchester road, a wealthy woman recluse was in the county hospital tonight, near death from pneumonia following a paralytic stroke suffered several days ago.

She is Mrs Anna Buppich, 72, a widow, who had lived alone more than five years here, coming from Fresno. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Yeager, next door neighbors, became curious yesterday when they had not seen the woman for over three days. Looking in a window they saw her lying apparently in a coma on her bed.

Constable Frank Copeland and Dr. W. I. Merrill were summoned, and broke into the house. Dr. Merrill called a Melvin ambulance from Los Gatos, and rushed her to the county hospital. She had been in an unconscious state for more than 72 hours, and has but little chance for recovery, the doctor stated.

According to former acquaintances of Mrs. Buppich, she has no living relatives and no immediate friends. Her husband was killed many years ago, shortly after their marriage, in an accident, leaving her a large sum of money, according to reports. Duped of a large part of her fortune by swindlers, she became suspicious of everyone and went into retirement. A large tract of land was left, which she sold, later moving to Campbell, and depositing a considerable sum of money in local banks. She lived entirely alone here, and had no acquaintanceship in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Buppovich was found unconscious by neighbors who summoned Constable Frank Copeland and Dr. W. I. Merrill of Campbell to her home on Winchester road. She had been unconscious 72 hours when she was discovered, and died without regaining consciousness.

Her nephew, John Buppovich, was named executor and administrator for her estate in a will she had drawn recently, it was learned. The body is resting at the Melvin chapel in Los Gatos.

PUPPICH (BUPPOVICH)—Near Campbell, Cal., June 8, 1931, Ane Puppich, widow of Steve Puppich and aunt of Peter V. Popovich of Los Angeles, and a cousin of Alex. M. Subatich of San Francisco; a native of Jugo-Slavia, aged 72 years.

CAMPBELL, Aug. 3. —Charles Evander Case, last G. A. R. veteran in Campbell, died at his home here Sunday at the age of 84. He was one of the four surviving members of E. O. C. Ord post No. 82, G. A. R., Los Gatos.

Case enlisted in the 12th Illinois cavalry in December, 1862, when he was but 18 years of age, serving with distinction until the end of the war. He figured prominently in several battles, and on one occasion narrowly escaped death when his horse was shot from under him. He also captured two of the enemy single-handed when he encountered them in a barn, according to his stories recalled by his widow.

Mrs. Minna Case, his second wife, survives him, with two children of his first marriage, Mrs. Lula Collins of San Jose and Mrs. Ebbie Mallory of Fresno. Case had lived in Campbell 14 years, following a 35-year residence in Los Gatos after moving from Napa, where he was engaged in the shoe business. He had engaged in farming in Illinois after the war, before moving to California in the late 60s. He was an active member of the Methodist church.

Funeral services under the auspices of the Los Gatos G. A. R. and W. R. C. posts will be held this Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Melvin chapel in Los Gatos, with interment in Los Gatos cemetery. Commander William Lawrence of San Jose will be in charge. Commander Lawrence, Alonzo Shaeffer of Los Gatos and L. N. Thoms, now in Arizona, are the three surviving members of the Los Gatos post.

W. ATWOOD, CIVIL WAR VET, PASSES

LOS GATOS, Aug. 5.—One of the few surviving members of the dwindling 95th New York infantry of Civil war fame, William Atwood, died at his Bellevue Heights home today at the age of 91.

As a member of the G. A. R. post in Oakland, where he lived many years, Atwood was known to thousands of Oakland school children for his Memorial day addresses, and he was commonly called the unofficial patriotic instructor for the Oakland schools. During the past 10 years he had lived with his niece, Mrs. Alice Wright, his only surviving relative, at Bellevue Heights, in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Enlisting at the opening of the Civil war, Atwood served all during the struggle. Among his cherished souvenirs was a sword of a Confederate officer who died with his head on Atwood's knee in battle. Atwood told many interesting anecdotes of Abraham Lincoln, with whom he claimed a personal acquaintanceship.

Atwood was an active church member, first of the Dutch Reformed church in the east, later of the Presbyterian church in Oakland, and for the last 10 years a leading figure in the Lakeside district memorial church. Funeral services will be held this Friday at 3 p. m. from the Melvin chapel, with the Rev. H. H. Wintler officiating, and interment in Los Gatos cemetery.

Henry Berger Has Fatal Heart Attack in His Car

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Aug. 8.—Stricken while driving to Santa Cruz with his two sons, Henry Berger, 50, prominent Madrone man, died near Alma late this afternoon before aid could be summoned. Death was ascribed to a heart attack.

While the younger son, Peter, aged six, remained with his father, unaware he was dying, the elder boy, William, aged 13, rushed to Los Gatos with a passing motorist. Officer Lyman Feathers hurried to the scene with Dr. H. O. Jones, but Berger was dead when they arrived. Dr. Jones said he probably had passed away immediately after he pulled over to the side of the road and stopped, saying he felt ill, according to the boys. He collapsed when he stepped from the car, and did not regain consciousness.

Meanwhile State Highway Patrolman Edward Tressler arrived at the scene, and summoned an ambulance. The body was taken to the Melvin chapel pending instructions from Berger's family at Madrone, who were notified of the death. He leaves a widow and three sons at Madrone, where he was proprietor of Berger's "Zoo," a service station.

State Fire Warden Don King and James Crawford, local garageman, drove the two boys to their home with Berger's car.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 30.—George Lewis Leet, 87, a resident of Los Gatos for the past 26 years, died suddenly last night at his Glenridge avenue home here. He was the owner of summer resort property at Shasta Springs, and was prominent in the Christian church of Los Gatos.

After trips by stage, horseback and on foot through most of central California, Leet sailed on the "Pfiel," a ship bringing missionaries on Pacific islands supplies. He escaped an attack by cannibals in the Caroline islands, where several of his shipmates lost their lives, and returned to California by the northern route, finally settling at Los Gatos.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Georgianna Leet, and two daughters, Mrs. Harriet A. Oakley of Wheatland, Cal., and Mrs. Lillian Martin of Porterville. He was a native of Chautauqua, New York.

Death Calls S. J. Educator

Mrs. Jessica Thompson Washburn, one of the first two women graduates of Stanford university and founder with her husband of the Washburn preparatory school here, who died yesterday at Los Gatos.

DEATH SUMMONS JESSICA WASHBURN PIONEER EDUCATOR

Was Early Graduate of Stanford and Founder of Washburn School.

Mrs. Jessica Thompson Washburn, a pioneer figure in California educational circles and one of the founders of the famous old Washburn school in San Jose, died yesterday at her home in Los Gatos. She was 72 years of age.

An illness of long standing proved fatal after many months during which her life had been despaired. A sister-in-law, Miss Lucy K. Washburn, and a nurse were in constant attendance until her death.

ON NORMAL FACULTY.

Coming to San Jose from Wisconsin in her early girlhood, Mrs. Washburn, then Miss Thompson, completed a two-years' teacher's course at what was then San Jose state normal school, under Charles H. Allen, principal. Four years at the University of Michigan followed, after which she returned to San Jose to direct the English department at the normal school.

She resigned her position after five years to marry Arthur Washburn, a former neighbor and classmate, who had completed meanwhile an engineering course at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. With the opening of Stanford university three years later Mrs. Washburn enrolled for a degree course, graduating as one of the first two women of the new university. Her husband also added a Stanford degree to his engineering course, and with Mrs. Washburn became an instructor in the institution. Washburn also later taught mathematics at San Jose normal school.

school between high schools and universities of the time was recognized by Mr. and Mrs. Washburn, with the result in their founding of the Washburn school, of which many prominent citizens of San Jose today are graduates.

Starting with classes in their own home, the Washburns rapidly acquired fame for their high standing, and were accredited in the more important universities of the country. The late President David Starr Jordan of Stanford and members of the University of California staff maintained cordial relations with the school.

After 17 years of this life, the Washburns retired from their active school career to take a vacation in Italy, where they enjoyed the companionship of Professor Anderson of Stanford, who was then engaged in making a translation of Dante in the poet's home city of Florence.

DISTRICT LEADER DURING WAR.

On their return to Santa Clara valley, the Washburns settled in the foothills, taking an active part in the Presbyterian church and allied institutions. During the World war, Mrs. Washburn served as district leader for the food administration program. Their elder son, Henry, served with the marines.

Three years later an attack of grippe proved fatal to Mr. Washburn, leaving Mrs. Washburn and her sister-in-law to maintain their Los Gatos foothill home. The Washburns' two sons, Henry and Lowell, are married and living in Santa Cruz and Porterville, respectively. Another sister-in-law, Mrs. Beach Thompson of Palo Alto, also survives.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Melvin chapel in Los Gatos, with interment in Oak Hill cemetery. The Rev. H. H. Wintler will officiate.

MANY MOURN AT WASHBURN RITES

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Oct. 13.—City, county and state officials paid their last respects today to Mrs. Jessica B. Washburn, pioneer California educator, who died Sunday at her home here after a lingering illness.

Many were former students at the famous old Washburn school in San Jose which was founded many years ago by Mrs. Washburn and her husband, Arthur Washburn, who died in 1918. Mrs. Washburn was a graduate of San Jose State college when it was a state normal school, and later returned to head the English department there. She was one of the two first women graduates of Stanford university in the 90's, and also held a professorship at that institution after she had received a degree.

Her two sons, Henry and Lowell Washburn, were among the pallbearers in services held today from the Melvin chapel, with Judge A. H. Bell, Dr. E. R. Wagner, William Curtner and Charles Johnson assisting. The Rev. H. H. Wintner officiated, with music by Miss Fern Nuss, E. S. Yocco and Mrs. Clarence Hamsher. A long procession escorted the body to Oak Hill cemetery, where it was interred, with a profusion of flowers adding to the impressive rites.

MRS. WALLACE OF GEM CITY BURIED

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Oct. 20.—Mrs. Flora E. Wallace of Los Gatos went to her last rest today in what is believed the largest funeral in the history of the city, with friends, relatives and members of the various fraternal orders with which she was affiliated comprising the throng of nearly 400 persons who gathered to pay homage.

A member of the state board of the Women's Relief Corps and president of the district federation of the corps, Mrs. Wallace had been prominent for many years in other circles, as well, being an active member of Los Gatos chapter, No. 128, Order of Eastern Star; Rose Croix chapter, No. 7, White Shrine, of San Jose; Hesperian Rebekah lodge, No. 70, I. O. O. F.; E. O. C. Ord chapter of W. R. C., the Grange and the Royal Neighbors. Under the leadership of the W. R. C., with Mrs. Belle Lossing, state president, in attendance, officials of the various lodges conducted the services. Mrs. Margaret Huff, E. O. C. Ord post president, officiated, with Senior Vice President Mrs. Mary McClelland and Junior Vice President Anna Stanley.

PASSED AWAY SUNDAY.

Two ministers, the Rev. Alonzo Sterling and the Rev. E. E. Russell, read the service. Pallbearers were A. M. Crittenden, W. H. Platt, B. T. Stanley, J. R. McQueen, A. C. Erickson and J. H. Bunney Music was furnished by Mrs. L. G. Case, Mrs. William Jones and Mrs. W. W. Clarke.

Services were held at 2:30 p. m. in the Melvin parlors, followed by interment in Los Gatos cemetery where a procession of a mile and a half in length escorted the body.

Mrs. Wallace was found dead in bed early Sunday, apparently the victim of a sudden heart attack as she had been in good health at the time, her friends said. Surviving are her husband, George W. Wallace; three children, Walter L. Wallace of San Francisco, Dr. Dorrace G. Wallace of Stockton, and Mrs. Eva Lynn Andrews of San Francisco, and a sister, Mrs. Grace Campbell of Orange, Calif. She was 63 years of age at her death, a native of Nebraska, and had lived in Los Gatos 30 years.

"The Travelling Flag" of Federation No. 9 was brought from Santa Cruz post for the funeral, which was attended by May S. Thompson, Federation secretary, and the presidents of the six posts in the Federation, Maretta Baily of San Jose, Margaret Bremmer of Redwood City, Margarette Huff of Los Gatos, and Lillian Morton of Palo Alto, and by Lou Tripp of Capitola, past department president.

The White Shrine ritual was observed at the interment in Los Gatos cemetery. The floral tributes filled a large truck.

Among the mourners at the funeral were large delegations from Stella Rebkah lodge of San Jose, Ada Rebekah lodge of Campbell, Commander William Lawrence of the E. O. C. Ord post, G. A. R. Commander William Robinson of Sheridan Dix post, G. A. R., Commander J. J. Holtslander of Santa Cruz post, G. A. R., and other high officers and members of various orders with which the receased was affiliated.

Pall Bearers

The pall bearers at the funeral were A. M. Crittenden, head of the Sons of the American Revolution here, W. A. Platt, B. T. Stanley, J. R. McQueen, J. H. Bunney and A. L. Erickson.

Music was provided by the choir of the Christian church. Favorite hymns of Mrs. Wallace, including "Tell Mother I'll be There," were sung by Mrs. Lawrence Case and Mrs. William Jones, local soloists, who were friends and neighbors of long standing. Mrs. W. W. Clarke was at the organ.

Mrs. Wallace had lived in Los Gatos with her husband, G. W. Wallace, for thirty years, and their home at the corner of Vineland and Santa Cruz avenues was a center of hospitality. Her death came most unexpectedly, and she was found dead in her bed on Sunday morning.

Her passing removes an executive of proved ability and charming graciousness, and has caused a deep sense of loss as a friend and neighbor of many people. She was born in Nebraska City, Nebraska, and was 63 years old.

Besides her husband, who is held in high respect here, Mrs. Wallace leaves two sons, Walter L. Wallace of San Francisco and Dr. Dorrace G. Wallace of Stockton, and a daughter of San [illegible] Byron Walton carried off [illegible] title role, and David [illegible]

The stately ritual of the Relief Corps was observed at the funeral by Margarette Huff, president; May McClelland, senior vice president; Anna Stanley, junior vice president; Frances Puckett, patrotic instructor; Ethel Harms, of Palo Alto, chaplain of Federation No. 9; and Hattie Smith, Edith Millar, Frances Wheeler, and Tillie Lansdell, color bearers.

OF LEADER

At one of the largest funerals, if not the most largely attended funeral, in the history of Los Gatos, final honors were paid Tuesday afternoon to Mrs. Flora Wallace, prominent and beloved lodge leader of Los Gatos. The Melvin Chapel on West Main street was crowded with a throng of mourners that overflowed the building, and who came from many parts of the valley.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. E. E. Russell, pastor of the Los Gatos Christian church, of which Mrs. Wallace was an active member, and by the Rev. A. Sterling, retired pastor of that church. Rev. Sterling, following the scripture reading by Rev. Russell, gave an eloquent eulogy of the departed, closing with the words:

"Let us rejoice that the heritage she left us is in good deeds and kindly thoughts."

Federation President

Mrs. Wallace was president of Federation No. 9, Women's Relief Corps, and was to have installed Mary Winters, of Redwood City, president elect, at the next Federation meeting. She also was a member of Los Gatos chapter, No. 128, Order of the Eastern Star; Rose Croix chapter No. 7, San Jose, of the White Shrine; Hesperian Rebekah lodge, Los Gatos, I. O. O. F.; the Grange; Royal Neighbors; and E. O. C. Ord post, Los Gatos, of the Women's Relief Corps.

Mrs. Wallace also was a member of St. Clair court, No. 31, Order of Amaranth.

The stately ritual of the Relief Corps was observed at the funeral by Margarette Huff, president; May McClelland, senior vice president; Anna Stanley, junior vice president; Frances Puckett, patrotic instructor; Ethel Harms, of Palo Alto, chaplain of Federation No. 9; and Hattie Smith, Edith Millar, Frances Wheeler, and Tillie Lansdell, color bearers.

BERKELEY, Oct. 20.—Joe Cattolico, first ranking halfback on California's varsity which will meet the powerful U. S. C. Trojans here Saturday, will be out of the game, it was announced following practice tonight.

A broken bone in his hand will keep the promising star on the bench for a couple of weeks.

This loss coupled with the fact that Louis Di Resta, right end, is out with a broken bone in his foot, makes California's chances of stopping the Southern California eleven much slimmer.

"Hank" Schaldach, who was to have been the Bears' greatest offensive threat, is also on the injured list. He has not been counted on very much since the Santa Clara game when he won for the Bears almost single-handed.

HURT AGAIN.

He played some against Washington State last Saturday but the result was another injury that will keep him fast on the bench again.

Lee Valianos is expected to ease into the left halfback position. Without him will be George Watkins at right halfback; "Rust" Gill at fullback and Ed Kirwan at quarter.

"Navy Bill" Ingram refused to predict on the outcome of the game but he chose to say that the Trojan will not push his team about as the have the other conference members on recent Saturdays.

STRONG LINE.

Bill the sailor is confident that his line, which has proved stronger with each succeeding game, will stop the Trojans cold.

California is taking courage in the fact that St. Mary's was able to stop the Trojans in the first game of the season and win besides. While Sailor Bill is not expecting a victory he is confident that with the proper charge his Bears will make the game closer to an even battle than a run-away.

FLORA WALLACE IS FOUND DEAD IN LOS GATOS HOME

Noted Leader in Fraternal Circles Succumbs to Heart Attack.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Oct. 18.—Flora E. Wallace, 63, was found dead in bed in her home here this morning. Death was believed due to heart disease. She had apparently been in good health when she retired last night.

She was a member of the state board of the Woman's Relief Corps and president of the district federation of that order. She was also prominent in the Eastern Star, Rebekahs, White Shrine and Royal Neighbors.

As custodian of the W. R. C. traveling flag for one year Mrs. Wallace carried it to corps in all parts of the state and became widely known.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Melvin funeral chapel, followed by interment in Los Gatos cemetery.

Answers Roll Call

Mrs. Flora Wallace, noted for her work in the ladies' auxiliary of the G. A. R., the Woman's Relief Corps, was found dead in bed at home yesterday morning, victim of heart disease.

Thanks Community

"The Business and Professional Women's club," said its president, Mrs. Ida May Brugge, "certainly appreciate the cordial and vigorous cooperation of the community at large, and other service organizations in particular. The affair could not have been the success it was without the aid given by the entire cast and the lodges and other organizations represented in the cast and audience."

The program commenced with a patriotic pageant, "My Dream of the Big Parade," given by about 100 school children, accompanied by soldiers and sailors from the cast. A chorus of several score grammar school singers was directed by Frances Willett. Kathryne Walton was featured in an effective "tribute to the colors." The script was eloquently read by Mayor I. D. Mabie.

The musical comedy, "Red Earen," provided a number of comedy highlights, in which clever headliners were Dr. E. M. Miller, as the M. C. A. worker, and Mrs. Zeller Koppe, the "Willing War Worker,

BERKELEY, Oct. 20.—Joe Cattolico, first ranking halfback on California's varsity which will meet the powerful U. S. C. Trojans here Saturday, will be out of the game, it was announced following practice tonight.

A broken bone in his hand will keep the promising star on the bench for a couple of weeks.

This loss coupled with the fact that Louis Di Resta, right end, is out with a broken bone in his foot, makes California's chances of stopping the Southern California eleven much slimmer.

"Hank" Schaldach, who was to have been the Bears' greatest offensive threat, is also on the injured list. He has not been counted on very much since the Santa Clara game when he won for the Bears almost single-handed.

HURT AGAIN.

He played some against Washington State last Saturday but the result was another injury that will keep him fast on the bench again.

Lee Valianos is expected to ease into the left halfback position. With him will be George Watkins at right halfback; "Rust" Gill at fullback and Ed Kirwan at quarter.

"Navy Bill" Ingram refused to predict on the outcome of the game but he chose to say that the Trojan will not push his team about as the have the other conference members on recent Saturdays.

STRONG LINE.

Bill the sailor is confident that his line, which has proved stronger with each succeeding game, will stop the Trojans cold.

California is taking courage in the fact that St. Mary's was able to stop the Trojans in the first game of the season and win besides. While Sailor Bill is not expecting a victory he is confident that with the proper charge his Bears will make the game closer to an even battle than a runaway.

MRS. LURA COVELL, LOS GATOS, DIES

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Oct. 22.—Mrs. Lura Covell, pioneer Los Gatos resident, died early this morning in Reno, Nev., according to word received here by her grandson, Glenn Covell.

Mrs. Covell was the daughter-in-law of Morgan Covell, early Los Gatos settler who was the founder of the Lyndon fortunes, deeding his enormous holdings in La Rinconada de Los Gatos to John Lyndon in default of a $700 note in the early days of the town.

She is survived by her husband, William H. Covell of Sparks, Nev., two sons, Ray Covell of Long Beach, and Louis Covell, and a daughter, Mrs. F. H. Webster of Sparks. Her husband was for many years associated with the San Jose Water Works in Los Gatos. The body will be shipped here for services to be announced later by the Place Undertaking Home.

Funeral Services Held Saturday for Mrs. Laura Covell

Last rites were conducted for Mrs. Laura May Covell, aged 70, wife of William H. Covell, Saturday afternoon from the Melvin chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. E. E. Russell, pastor of the Christian church, of which Mrs. Covell was a charter member.

"Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Abide With Me" and "Beulah Land" were sung by Mrs. Genevieve Case and Mrs. Geraldine Jones. Mrs. C. P. Baird played the organ.

Mrs. Covell was a native of California, born in Tulare county. She had resided in Los Gatos for almost 53 years. Last August 30, Mr. and Mrs. Covell celebrated their golden wedding.

She had been a semi-invalid for many years. Her death, which came after a severe heart attack, was sudden and unexpected. For the past few years Mr. and Mrs. Covell had made their home with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Webster, in Sparks, Nevada.

Besides her husband, who for 47 years was associated with the San Jose Water Works in Los Gatos, sons, Roy Covell of Long Beach and Louis Covell, and a daughter, Mrs. F. H. Webster of Sparks, and a number of grandchildren.

Pall bearers were Emmet Sellers, George McMurtry, Homer Stephens, Herbert Steele, Wayland Phillips and W. W. Clark. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

COVELL—In Sparks, Nevada, October 22, 1931, Lura May Covell, wife of William Henry Covell of Los Gatos, mother of W. Ray Covell of Long Beach, Louis G. Covell of Watsonville and Mrs. Frank (Bessie) Webster of Sparks, Nevada, and grandmother of Beulah, Geneva, Glenn, Joyce, Marjorie and Ruth Covell and Mrs. Robert Wright, and great-grandmother of Robert and Betty Lou Wright; a native of California, aged 70 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street at Tait avenue, Los Gatos. Interment private.

Legion Funeral Held for Late John Vodden

With a host of sorrowing friends in attendance, the funeral of John Vodden, late assistant manager of the local express office, was held Friday morning from the Melvin chapel. The services were conducted with the full ritual of the American Legion. Vodden, who was a popular member of Los Gatos post, had served in the navy during the world war. Rev. A. Sterling, the officiating clergyman, spoke feelingly of Vodden as neighbor, citizen and parent.

District Commander Hans Nielsen and William Vowles, chaplain of Los Gatos post, conducted the Legion ritual, with Dick Swanson and Ed Chase as color bearers. The pall bearers, also legionnaires, were E. J. Hatch, N. W. McGrady, E. E. Briggs, Adolph Ferini, James Crawford and H. L. Roberts. A delegation of abont twenty members of the post attended the services in a body. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

"Abide with Me," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," were sung by Mrs. William Jones and Mrs. L. G. Case. Mrs. C. P. Baird, organist of the Christian church, played the organ.

Rev. Sterling, in conducting the service, incorporated in his remarks a eulogy written by an anonymous friend, as follows:

"The bridge of life is crossed again and the wayfarer is on the other side. The journey was all too short for those left at this end of the bridge, the loving wife and children, the mother, brothers and sisters and the many, many friends, to whom the wayfarer was so dear. All the pain and hurt is felt at this side; on the other side it is bright and clear.

"As the days lengthen into time, and the healing that only time can give lessens the hurt, the unassuming beauty of character, so unselfish, so generous and kindly, with willing hands always ready to serve family and friends, a character that can be truthfully said to have 'malice toward noe and charity for all,' will leave a memory that will be a heritage of peace and beauty, al most a benediction to those wh live after him.

"A short life, but not lived in vain, and again we know how true it is that good deeds never die, though life itself is only temporary."

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Pauline Vodden; three sons, John Jr., Paul and Neil; his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Vodden; two brothers, Thomas H. Vodden of Santa Clara and Melvin Vodden; and a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Thompson. He was a cousin of E. W. Vodden, postmaster at Los Gatos.

VODDEN—In Los Gatos, Calif., November 3, 1931, John Milton Vodden, husband of Pauline Vodden, father of Paul, Neil and John Vodden Jr., son of Mrs. Henrietta Vodden, brother of Thomas H. Vodden of Santa Clara, Mrs. Gertrude Thompson and Melvin Vodden; a native of Los Gatos, California, aged 36 years. Friends are invited to attend the funeral tomorrow (Friday) at 10:30 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street at Tait avenue. MORE UNITY IN FARMING URGED MERCED, Cal., Nov. 16.—Pleas for greater solidarity and co-operation among agriculturists of the state were made at the opening of the California Farm Bureau Federation here today.

Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, made the plea for closer unity. Praising this state's co-operative farm marketing organizations, he said the next big step, and the one which would show the greatest results for California, would be a consolidation of all these activities. The consolidated groups, he said, would attain the goal of improved economic conditions for growers. O'Neal indorsed the equalization fee, declaring it an American principle of self-help. He urged less concern with the economic woes of foreign countries and suggested more attention be paid to the plight of the American farmer.

Mrs. Stipp Made Los Gatos Home for Forty Years

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS. Dec. 7.—Mrs. Caroline W. Stipp of Los Gatos died last night at her home here, just seven months after she celebrated her 100th birthday anniversary.

For the past 40 years she had been living in Los Gatos with her son, George H. Stipp, who was formerly a city editor of the Mercury Herald. Previous to that time she lived in the bay region, spending a few years in Nevada during the Reese river and Comstock mining rushes. She was born in East Aurora, Erie county, New York, on May 5, 1831, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delos Warren. Her family moved in 1845 to West Lebanon, Indiana, and later to Williamsport, Indiana. She taught school in Niles, Michigan, for some time, then returned to New York after her father's death in 1857 to reside with her aunt in Darien, N. Y.

CROSSED ISTHMUS.

Miss Caroline Warren was married in 1859 to Henry S. Stipp, whom she joined in Portland, Oregon, after an ocean voyage, crossing the Isthmus of Panama by the new railroad. After the death of her husband, a prominent Salem druggist, she returned to California with her family. Henry Stipp was also a pioneer newspaper publisher and mining man in Nevada and California.

Surviving Mrs. Stipp are her son, George; a daughter, Mrs. Jeanette B. Whittle of San Francisco, and three grandchildren, Mrs. Edith Z. Short, Mrs. Ethel D. Macdougall and Mark S. Whittle. On her 100th birthday anniversary celebration last May, four generations were gathered at the Stipp home at 41 Walnut avenue in Los Gatos in a family reunion.

Funeral services will be held this Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Melvin parlors on West Main street, with the Rev. David Todd Gillmor of St. Luke's Episcopal church officiating. Burial will be in Los Gatos cemetery.

STIPP—In Los Gatos, Cal., December 6, 1931, Mrs. Caroline Warren Stipp, beloved wife of the late Henry S. Stipp, loving mother of George H. Stipp, Mrs. Jeanette B. Whittle of San Francisco, grandmother of Mrs. Edith Z. Short, Mrs. Ethel D. Macdougall of Berkeley and Mark S. Whittle of San Francisco; a native of East Aurora, N. Y., aged 100 years and 7 months.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral tomorrow (Wednesday) at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street, at Tait avenue, Los Gatos. Burial Los Gatos Cemetery.

MRS. C. W. STIPP OF GEM CITY BURIED

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Dec. 9.—Funeral services were held this afternoon from the Melvin chapel for Mrs. Caroline W. Stipp of Los Gatos, who died at her home here Sunday night at the age of 100 years, 7 months.

She was the widow of the late Henry Stipp, pioneer California and Nevada mining operator and newspaper publisher, who died in Los Gatos 31 years ago. Her son, George H. Stipp, former city editor of the Mercury Herald, is living in Los Gatos, and a daughter, Mrs. Jeanette B. Whittle of San Francisco, and three grandchildren survive.

The Rev. David Todd Gilmor officiated at today's services, with E. G. Angell, W. A. Platt, Frank B. Rinlep, Elmer Mack, George Lewis and J. A. Wanzer as pall-bearers. Music was supplied by Mrs. Ethel Ricketts. Interment was in Los Gatos cemetery.

Garnett Buried in Dixon on Tuesday

Masonic funeral rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon in Dixon for William H. Garnett, 71, retired Dixon rancher, who had lived here for the past 10 years, who succumbed to death at his home on Glenridge Sunday evening.

Garnett was the son of a pioneer Dixon family, and was prominent for many years in Sacramento valley affairs. He was a member of the Woodland Knights Templar lodge and of the Dixon W. O. W. and F. & A. M. Before his retirement he was a large land-holder and rancher and was also connected with banking circles.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katherine M. Garnett, and two daughters, Mrs. Ione Raney of Live Oak and Mrs. Katherine Rhoades of Morgan Hill.

Local service was in the care of the Melvin parlors. Interment was in Dixon.

Another Native Son and a descendant of sturdy pioneer stock passes.

Garnett's father came to California in 1853 and through dint of pioneer energy and thrift became possesed of immense land holdings, and was the head of a profitable stock business.

He was typical of the old south, as were most of those who settled in northern California, and created the counties of Colusa and Solano. Of such stock and in such an atmosphere of genuine southern hospitality, tempered by the stirring activities of early Californian days, the son was born.

And young Garnett, throughout his life, in his personal contacts and public relations, in business and social intercourse showed the effects of this inheritance. The true southerner displays under all circumstances a certain dignity of address and charm of social relation that others might well emulate.

William H. Garnett was a Mason of high degree and in his club relations was a genuine fellow.

Having known him intimately for several years as a near neighbor, and being an always welcome visitor to his home, I know whereof I write. In Kiwanis I have watched him engage keenly in programs in lighter vein, with ready wit and rippling repartee. And then when the gavel fell, calling us to the contemplation of more serious things, he became the attentive listener and a just and generous critic.

When we realized that Death was stalking him relentlessly our distress over his infirmities of the flesh was mitigated by our appreciation of his other self and now that he has entered into Nirvana we shall hold his memory pleasantly.

Goodbye, "Will" — this is "Antrim" speaking, after the manner of Kiwanians, a word of appreciation and farewell.

—Dr. A. E. Osborne

Claus Anderson Dies Here in Tragic Accident

Claus E. Anderson, rancher, was drowned under tragic circumstances at his ranch, on the Shannon road, last Monday afternoon. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the Melvin chapel, the Rev. C. J. Rosenquist, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of San Jose, officiating. Anderson is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alida Anderson, who is recovering from a recent operation, and five children, Harry, David, Arthur, Elin and Elsa. Two brothers, David and Tecla Anderson, and his mother, Mrs. Christina Anderson, live in Sweden.

On the Anderson ranch there is a low tunnel driven 15 feet into the hillside to the site of a former spring. The spring had not been used for years, and the tunnel was overgrown with brush. A small door, requiring one to crawl before entering, was the only mode of access to the spring, which was abandoned when the family purchased more land and sank a well. Anderson's body was found in this tunnel, dead in a foot or so of water.

Death by Drowning

One theory is that Anderson in a walk over his place, after the recent heavy rains, wanted to investigate the spring, which had not been flowing for many months, and the unusual exertion of stooping down and possibly bumping his head against the timbers, might have caused a fainting spell long enough to allow him to drown, as there was no evidence of a struggle, although the autopsy by Dr. Knowles showed death was due to drowning. Anderson had lunch with the family, and immediately afterward left the house. When he failed to show up, to take the family to San Jose on a pre-arranged srip, his son, Harry, traiied his father's footsteps on a broad sweep through the orchard until the tracks led to the tunnel door. He called a neighbor, George Sugg, and the two broke down the door and took the body out. Dr. Knowles when called said the man was dead, but to make sure the Los Gatos fire department inhalator squad was called, and for an hour under Fire Chief Jack Sullivan endeavored to bring back life.

Those working on the inhalator were Chief Sullivan, Alfred Lord, Cecil Hooten, Ed Chase, Eldon Hatch, Carl Balch, J. D. Lyle and Melvin Shore.

Inquest Held

An inquest was held by Deputy Coroner Charles Williams Tuesday at the Melvin establishment, when witnesses testified that while Anderson seemed moody and at times despondent over his wife's long illness, he had always expressed a strong condemnation of suicide. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict that death was due to "drowning, probably accidental." Those on the jury were S. W. Rice, J. M. Graves, A. A. Freshour, G. C. Hill, Charles C. Daniels, and Calvin Slagle.

Anderson, who was a native of Sweden, was 52 years of age. He had been in this country since 1900, when he went to Alaska for seven years, and had lived in this district for 18 years. His death by drowning is the first for many years in Los Gatos, the last, according to C. M. Sullivan, being that of John Killam about 20 years ago in the Howell reservoir.

Passes At Los Gatos

Mrs. Elsa Straus Riggs of Los Gatos passed away yesterday at her home. She had been ill for four months. She was prominent in club and church work.

Funeral Will Be Held on Monday For Clubwoman

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Elsa Staus Riggs, wife of Zedd S. Riggs, prominent Los Gatos real estate broker, died suddenly early today.

Though she had been an invalid for four months, Mrs. Riggs' passing came without warning, and was believed due to a heart attack. She had lived in Los Gatos, where she was active in church and social affairs, since her marriage in 1901. Before her marriage she was Elsa Valerie Staus, a member of the staff of the San Jose Evening News.

Since her residence here she was president of the grammar school P. T. A., president of the former Women's Civic Center, and for 16 years was secretary of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of which she was the only remaining charter member in Los Gatos.

Surviving besides her husband are one daughter, Mrs. Talcott Gawne, and two granddaughters, Elsa Anne and Nancy Rae Gawne, all of Sacramento.

Christian Science services will be held Monday at 11 a. m. from the Melvin chapel with Knowlton Mixer as reader. Private inurnment will be made at Mount Olivet cemetery.

Elsa Staus Riggs

Many acquaintances and friends were shocked to hear the news of the sudden passing of Mrs. Elsa Staus Riggs, wife of Zedd S. Riggs, prominent real estate broker of Los Gatos, on Friday. The funeral, held Monday morning from the Melvin chapel, was attended by a large throng of sympathetic friends, including many from San Jose. The Christian Science service was read by Knowlton Mixer. The floral tributes were both numerous and beautiful.

A particularly comforting and appropriate feature of the service was the singing of two hymns. "In Thee, O Spirit, True and Tender," and "Feed My Sheep," by Mary Baker Eddy, were sung with unusual tenderness by Arthur Johnson of San Jose and this district.

The pall bearers at the funeral were Messrs H. S. Beckwith, J. W. Knowles, George A. Green, E. E. Pomeroy, Ed Howes, and Milton G. Francis.

Mrs. Riggs was the only remaining charter member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Los Gatos, residing in this city. For the past 16 years she was secretary of that organization.

Active in church and social affairs in Los Gatos since her marriage, in 1901, Mrs. Riggs commanded not only the affection but the respect of a large circle of friends. She served ably as president of the grammar school P. T. A., and also as president of the former civic center organized by the women voters of Los Gatos. Before her marriage, as Miss Elsa Valerie Staus, she was a valued member of the staff of the San Jose Evening News, when that publication was owned by the late Charles Williams.

Besides her husband, Zedd S. Riggs, Mrs. Riggs leaves a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Talcott Gawne, residing in Sacramento, and two granddaughters, Elsa Anne and Nancy Rae Gawne.

Private inurnment services were held at Mount Olivet.

Leo V. Brown Is Killed in Auto Accident Thursday

Leo V. Brown, prominent lodge man of Los Gatos, was fatally injured last Thursday afternoon when his car crashed into a pole at Saratoga avenue and Rose street. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon from the Melvin chapel, under the auspices of Wetonka tribe, I. O. R. M. An inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner Bert Williams resulted in a verdict of accidental death.

Acting Chief of Police Lyman Feathers, who investigated the accident, expressed the opinion that it was caused by a blowout of the left front tire, causing the machine to veer suddenly into the pole. Brown was rushed to O'Connor sanitarium in the Melvin ambulance, but died at 7 p. m.

The accident sheered off the heavy telegraph pole, and completely wrecked Brown's car.

Brown, a veteran of the world war, was a member of Los Gatos post, No. 158, American Legion. His only surviving relative here is his widow, Mrs. Grace Brown, chief operator for the Los Gatos Telephone company.

Former Wife Of Magazine Editor Dies

Death, climaxing a lingering spell of ill health, early today claimed Mrs. Pearl Dillow Long, 57, at her home in Los Gatos.

Mrs. Long, first wife of Ray Long, former editor of Cosmopolitan magazine, was a prominent author, newspaper woman and magazine editor. She had resided for the past four years at 29 Alpine Avenue, her health being poor during the entire time. She passed away at 3 a. m. today.

Surviving her are a son, Sidney, of San Francisco; three sisters, Mrs. Carl F. Adams of Santa Cruz, Mrs. H. Reed of Cleveland, and Mrs. John LaMonte of Columbus, and two nieces, Ann and Jean Adams of Santa Cruz.

Born in Cleveland of pioneer stock, Mrs. Long was an honor graduate of Vassar. Married to Ray Long, they had one son. The couple were divorced approximately ten years ago, Mr. Long remarrying shortly after.

FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

Private funeral services, to be held at 3 p. m. Wednesday from the Melvin parlors in Los Gatos, will be conducted by Rev. Correll M. Julian. The remains will then be cremated, and the ashes shipped to Cleveland for inurnment in the family niche.

Mrs. Long served, prior to her residence in Los Gatos, as editor of Red Book, and was also for a time in charge of Photoplay magazine. She was the author of numerous short stories, written under the pen name of Dorothy Dale.

Active in newspaper work, the deceased was an employe of the Scripps-Howard newspaper group from 1900 to 1905, and also worked for NEA Feature Service.

Her former husband is believed to be in the South Sea islands, having sailed from San Francisco early in August. He was last reported in Papette.

Mrs. Long led a secluded life in Los Gatos, and was seldom seen in public.

LONG—In Los Gatos, Calif., August 29, 1932, Pearl Dillow Long, mother of Sidney Long, sister of Mrs. Karl F. Adams of Santa Cruz, Mrs. James H. Reed of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. John LaMonte of Columbus, Ohio, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, aged 57 years.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 1, 1932

Mrs. P. D. Long, "Dorothy Dale," Dies in Los Gatos

Far from the thronging cities of the east, where she made a reputation as a brilliant writer and editor, Mrs. Pearl Dillow Long, nationally known from 1900 to 1905 as "Dorothy Dale," passed away Monday morning at three o'clock at her home, 26 Alpine avenue. Mrs. Long after her period of service as a newspaper "feature" writer, obtained fame as editor of the Red Book magazine, and of Photoplay magazine, but it was as "Dorothy Dale" that Mrs. Long was beloved by thousands of readers of the Scripps papers, and it was as "Dorothy Dale" that she gained the experience which she translated into human sympathy and wonderful appeal.

The funeral was private, and was held Tuesday afternoon from the Melvin chapel. Rev. Correll Julian, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the services.

For the past four years, Mrs. Long, broken in health, had lived in retirement in Los Gatos. But the writer, although withdrawn from the world, did not forget tthe world. At times she spoke of the pathos of the eastern city slums, and her wish that some time she might do something in a big way for the children of the crowded streets. She was a heavy contributor to several favorite charities which alleviated the condition of the poor, and no wayfarer was ever turned away from her door without at least something to eat. Her only substitute for the gayeties of life, which she knew as club woman and editor, was the recorded music of airs she had once heard in brilliant surroundings, and often in the early morning hours the night nurse was asked to put on the record of the "Pagan Love Song" or some other melody which finally lulled her to sleep.

As Miss Pearl Dillow, the beautiful daughter of George W. Dillow, of Cleveland, Ohio, she graduated with high honors from Vassar. She was for years an active member and officer of the Chicago College club, and the Vassar club. She was the former wife of Ray Long, editor of Hearst's Cosmopolitan magazine and other Hearst publications.

Surviving her are her son, Sidney Long, former newspaper man and now associated with the Standard Thrift company of San Francisco, and three sisters, Mrs. Karl F. Adams of Santa Cruz, Mrs. James H. Reed of Cleveland, and Mrs. John LaMonte of Columbus, Ohio.

greatest of all humorous weeklies, and certainly not a puritanical journal, adopted the policy of refusing all liquor advertisements. It was apparently convinced that the liquor advertisers were not promoting "true temperance." What wet organization ever took even that moderate stand?

Mrs. P. D. Long, "Dorothy Dale," Dies in Los Gatos

Far from the thronging cities of the east, where she made a reputation as a brilliant writer and editor, Mrs. Pearl Dillow Long, nationally known from 1900 to 1905 as "Dorothy Dale," passed away Monday morning at three o'clock at her home, 26 Alpine avenue. Mrs. Long after her period of service as a newspaper "feature" writer, obtained fame as editor of the Red Book magazine, and of Photoplay magazine, but it was as "Dorothy Dale" that Mrs. Long was beloved by thousands of readers of the Scripps papers, and it was as "Dorothy Dale" that she gained the experience which she translated into human sympathy and wonderful appeal.

The funeral was private, and was held Tuesday afternoon from the Melvin chapel. Rev. Correll Julian, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the services.

For the past four years, Mrs. Long, broken in health, had lived in retirement in Los Gatos. But the writer, although withdrawn from the world, did not forget tthe world. At times she spoke of the pathos of the eastern city slums, and her wish that some time she might do something in a big way for the children of the crowded streets. She was a heavy contributor to several favorite charities which alleviated the condition of the poor, and no wayfarer was ever turned away from her door without at least something to eat. Her only substitute for the gayeties of life, which she knew as club woman and editor, was the recorded music of airs she had once heard in brilliant surroundings, and often in the early morning hours the night nurse was asked to put on the record of the "Pagan Love Song" or some other melody which finally lulled her to sleep.

As Miss Pearl Dillow, the beautiful daughter of George W. Dillow, of Cleveland, Ohio, she graduated with high honors from Vassar. She was for years an active member and officer of the Chicago College club, and the Vassar club. She was the former wife of Ray Long, editor of Hearst's Cosmopolitan magazine and other Hearst publications.

Surviving her are her son, Sidney Long, former newspaper man and now associated with the Standard Thrift company of San Francisco, and three sisters, Mrs. Karl F. Adams of Santa Cruz, Mrs. James H. Reed of Cleveland, and Mrs. John LaMonte of Columbus, Ohio.

greatest of all humorous weeklies, and certainly not a puritanical journal, adopted the policy of refusing all liquor advertisements. It was apparently convinced that the liquor advertisers were not promoting "true temperance." What wet organization ever took even that moderate stand?

Many Points of Interest in Salt Lake City, Says W. R. Gibbs in Trans-Continental Automobile Log

(This series started in the July 28 issue.)

By W. R. Gibbs

Salt Lake City is magnificent and if you have never been there by all means plan to spend a day. There is much to see, much of real interest. The Tabernacle, the first department store in the world (so it is claimed), the capitol building, the university, monuments galore, gates and famous houses. Being a city of over 175,000, you will find first class agencies for all makes of cars and every possible service a large city can offer.

Nor will you find the parking problem, for its streets are 132 feet wide.

One of the best places to eat I have found anywhere in this country is here in Salt Lake City. It is the Grill Cafe at 230 South Main street,

Frank Simershek

Funeral rites were held from the Melvin chapel Monday afternoon for Frank Simershek, 60, known to mountain neighbors as Frank Smith, who died at O'Connor sanitarium Saturday morning. Father William F. Keller officiated at the services.

Simershek was found near death from pneumonia in his lonely cabin on the John Brown road late Wednesday of last week by his neighbor, Fred S. Gregory. He was rushed by Melvin ambulance to the hospital, but no hope was held for his recovery. Aware that he would not live, the aged recluse left directions for his funeral with Gregory.

Simershek had lived on his mountain ranch for the past seven years. Up until the time of his retirement in 1925, he had been engaged as a lumberjack in various camps throughout the Santa Cruz mountains for more than 5 years. Nothing was known of his earlier life. He left no known relatives.

Burial was in Madrone cemetery. Pallbearers were friends from Saratoga and the mountain region.

SMITH (SIMERSHEK)—In San Jose, Cal., October 29, 1932, Frank Smith (Simershek) of the John Brown Road, Saratoga, aged 60 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral on Monday at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street at Tait avenue, Los Gatos. Interment Madrone Cemetery, Saratoga.

Moses F. Blank, Pioneer Officer, Passes to Rest

Moses Franklin Blank, for 40 year a peace officer in Los Gatos, died suddenly at his home in Los Gatos early Saturday morning. Private funeral services, under the auspices of Los Gatos lodge, No. 292, F. & A. M., were held Monday afternoon from the Melvin chapel. Cremation was at the Masonic cemetery in Colma.

One of the last two charter members of Los Gatos lodge of Masons, Mr. Blank was highly respected. He was master of the lodge when Dr. R. P. Gober and Dr. F. W. Knowles, who were among the mourners, were initiated into the Masonic order. Both Dr. Gober and Dr. Knowles are past masters of the lodge. He was the last charter member living here, as the only other charter member, Del Scammond, resides in San Francisco.

Peace Officers

The deceased also was a member of the old Knights of Pythias lodge, which later was transferred to San Jose.

Coming here in 1888, about two years after his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blank, and family, had come here from Iowa, he served as deputy sheriff and night watchman for many years. In 1908 he succeeded to the office of constable, which had been held by E. F. "Buck" Reynolds, for more than 30 years. Mr. Blank was continuously re-elected to the position until his retirement in 1930, when the present constable, E. O. Woods, succeeded him.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Blank, and was the father of Jack L. Blank of San Jose, and Mrs. Pearl M. Baker, and the grandfather of Jack Broderick. He was the brother of W. H. Blank of Hollister, Omar H. Blank of San Francisco, Mrs. W. S. Sporleder and Mrs. Florence Latham of Los Gatos, Mrs. Grace M. Jordan of San Jose, and the late Mrs. Helen Sellers. He was a native of Pennsylvania, aged 77 years.

Masonic Funeral

The funeral was conducted according to Masonic ritual by Cecil Reynolds, master of Los Gatos lodge; Carl Balch, senior warden; Fred Berryman, chaplain; David Nerell, marshal; and the other members of the fraternity here.

The pall bearers were Francis Derrickson, Paul E. Curtis, George A. Green, Russell Sund, George F. Shaner, and E. O. Woods.

LOS GATOS, Dec. 17.—Moses F. Blank, 77, a peace officer in Los Gatos for 40 years until his retirement two years ago, died suddenly early this morning at his home at 239 Edelen avenue. He was one of the last two surviving charter members of Los Gatos lodge No. 292, F. & A. M.

A resident of Los Gatos since 1888, when he came here with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Blank and family, from Pennsylvania, Blank was a widely known and colorful character of the city. Serving as a deputy sheriff and night watchman for many years, he succeeded in 1908 to the office of constable held previously for more than 30 years by E. F. "Buck" Reynolds, and remained in that office until 1930, when he was succeeded in turn by the present constable, E. O. Woods.

Active in lodge work, Blank was a member of the old Knights of Pythias lodge which later transferred to San Jose. He was the last charter member of the local Masonic lodge residing in Los Gatos. Del Scammond of San Francisco is now the last living charter member. Members of the lodge will have charge of private funeral services to be held this Monday at 1:30 p. m. from the Melvin chapel, followed by cremation at Colma.

Blank is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Blank; two children, Jack L. Blank and Mrs. Pearl Baker; a grandson, Jack Broderick; two brothers, W. Henry Blank of Hollister and O. Homer Blank of San Francisco, and one sister, Mrs Grace Jordan of San Jose. He was the brother of the late Mrs. Helen Sellers, who died here November 8.

Moses F. Blank, Pioneer Officer, Passes to Rest

Moses Franklin Blank, for 40 year a peace officer in Los Gatos, died suddenly at his home in Los Gatos early Saturday morning. Private funeral services, under the auspices of Los Gatos lodge, No. 292, F. & A. M., were held Monday afternoon from the Melvin chapel. Cremation was at the Masonic cemetery in Colma.

One of the last two charter members of Los Gatos lodge of Masons, Mr. Blank was highly respected. He was master of the lodge when Dr. R. P. Gober and Dr. F. W. Knowles, who were among the mourners, were initiated into the Masonic order. Both Dr. Gober and Dr. Knowles are past masters of the lodge. He was the last charter member living here, as the only other charter member, Del Scammond, resides in San Francisco.

Peace Officers

The deceased also was a member of the old Knights of Pythias lodge, which later was transferred to San Jose.

Coming here in 1888, about two years after his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blank, and family, had come here from Iowa, he served as deputy sheriff and night watchman for many years. In 1908 he succeeded to the office of constable, which had been held by E. F. "Buck" Reynolds, for more than 30 years. Mr. Blank was continuously re-elected to the position until his retirement in 1930, when the present constable, E. O. Woods, succeeded him.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Blank, and was the father of Jack L. Blank of San Jose, and Mrs. Pearl M. Baker, and the grandfather of Jack Broderick. He was the brother of W. H. Blank of Hollister, Omar H. Blank of San Francisco, Mrs. W. S. Sporleder and Mrs. Florence Latham of Los Gatos, Mrs. Grace M. Jordan of San Jose, and the late Mrs. Helen Sellers. He was a native of Pennsylvania, aged 77 years.

Masonic Funeral

The funeral was conducted according to Masonic ritual by Cecil Reynolds, master of Los Gatos lodge; Carl Balch, senior warden; Fred Berryman, chaplain; David Nerell, marshal; and the other members of the fraternity here.

The pall bearers were Francis Derrickson, Paul E. Curtis, George A. Green, Russell Sund, George F. Shaner, and E. O. Woods.

Miss Ella Shove, resident of Los Gatos for the past 45 years, passed away at her home here in the city on Thursday, December 29, at noon. She had not been well for over a year, but her condition did not become critical until about three weeks ago.

Miss Shove was born in Medway, Massachusetts, May 22, 1854. She came to California in 1887 and except for a few years had been a resident of Los Gatos ever since.

She was a member of the Royal Neighbors and the Sewing Circle connected with that organization. She was a Rebekah and belonged to the Los Gatos Flower Lovers' club.

She was one of the founders of the Los Gatos Good Templers' lodge and was a charter member of that organization, established in 1889.

Miss Shove was interested in the history and traditions of the city and usually had a role in the Los Gatos pageants when they were presented.

Miss Shove had no living relatives but a host of friends mourn the passing of one whose loyalty and integrity of character endeared her to them.

Complying with the wishes of Miss Ella Shove, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor extend thanks to all friends who brought cheer and comfort to her during her last illness.

JOHN H. SPRING LAST RITES HELD AT LOS GATOS

Retired Capitalist Laid to Last Rest on High Ridge Overlooking City.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, April 19.—High upon a rocky ridge of El Sereno, mountain top overlooking Los Gatos, John H. Spring, 70, well-known retired capitalist, was laid to his last rest today.

The hills Spring loved so well and which he had covered with roads and trails, formed an appropriate setting for his grave, to which a trail will be built later.

Retired here for the past 18 years, Spring was formerly widely known in San Francisco bay circles where he was associated with F. M. "Borax" Smith in numerous real estate deals. He was identified with the late Frank C. Havens, president of the old People's Water company, and with the Key Route railroad. He developed his Thousand Oaks estate in Berkeley to one of the show places of the east bay, later turning it over to a private college.

Controlling at one time virtually the entire eastbay waterfront from Richmond to Oakland, he was also a director of the old Western National bank of San Francisco and the Berkeley National bank. He was the son of Francis Samuel Spring, colorful early-day real estate operator of San Francisco who founded the first Spring fortune.

Spring was divorced from his first wife in 1915, and in 1917 married Mrs. Genevieve McGraw Ecker, from whom he obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce last January. They were later reconciled and the decree forgotten.

He is survived by his widow and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. George Friend of Berkeley; Mrs. Noble Newson of Piedmont; Frank Spring of Detroit, and Mrs. Dorothy Gobe of Pasadena, all children by the first marriage, and John H. Spring Jr., a son by his second marriage.

Ray Pike read the service at today's funeral, which was held under the direction of E. H. Melvin privately at the Spring home on Overlook road. Pallbearers were: H. L. Baggerly, John Houghton, Fred Crisp, William Abbott, Eugene McGraw, E. H. Hamilton and John Jones.

SPRING—In Los Gatos, Cal., April 16, 1933, John Hopkins Spring, husband of Genevieve Spring, father of Frank S. Spring of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. George Friend of Berkeley, Mrs. Noble Newsome of Piedmont, Dorothy Spring of Pasadena, John Hopkins Spring IV and Lucy Gene Spring, brother of Mrs. Douglas Montgomery of San Francisco; a native of San Fancisco, aged 70 years.

Dr. H. E. Smith Succumbs Suddenly to Heart Attack

Dr. Herbert Eugene Smith, who for quarter of a century was dean of the medical school at Yale university ,was stricken by a heart attack in his sleep Monday night, at his home, Casa Luma, on Greenwood road. His death, the first in the ranks of the Los Gatos Rotary club, came as a great shock to the Los Gatos community, as it was quite unforseen, and he was held in the highest regard by all who knew him.

The funeral of Dr. Smith, who founded the Los Gatos chapter of the Red Cross, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Melvin chapel. Miss Mary Smith arrived, via aeroplane, from Chicago Tuesday night, making thetrip in 16 hours.

Dr. Smith was born October 21, 1857, in Hartford, Connecticut, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart Smith. Securing his degree of bachelor of philosophy at Yale in 1879, he took the degree of doctor of medicine at the University of Pennsylvania in 1882, and later studied at the university of Heidelberg. From 1885 to 1910 he was professor of chemistry and at the same time dean of the medical school at Yale.

Professional Standing

His zeal and ability as dean did much to build up the standards and reputation of the medical college at Yale, and he was recognized as one of the leading men of his profession. He was given the title of professor emeritus in 1910, when he retired. After a careful survey of California, he came to Los Gatos. By coincidence, the month of his death marked the 20th anniversary of his occupancy of the home he built on Greenwood road.

He is survived by Mrs. H. E. Smith, and three daughters, Misses Emily Smith, Mary Morgan Smith, and Elizabeth B. Smith, all of whom resided at the family home.

Dr. Smith attended the Presbyterian church here, and took an active and intelligent interest in community affairs. His services for several years as volunteer weather observer were recognized and appreciated by the United States weather bureau, who commissioned him official observer after the retirement of F. H. McCullagh, who kept the records here for a generation.

Dr. Herbert Smith, Los Gatos, Former Yale Dean, Dies

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Oct. 10.—Dr. Herbert Eugene Smith, 76, dean of the Yale medical school from 1885 to 1910, and a prominent Los Gatos resident for the past 23 years, died in his sleep here last night. A heart attack was believed the cause of death.

His unexpected passing marked the first death in the Los Gatos Rotary club, of which he was an active member, and by a coincidence, occurred on the twentieth anniversary of the completion of the Smith residence, Casa Loma, on Greenwood road. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. H. E. Smith, and three daughters, Mary Morgan Smith, now in Chicago; Elizabeth B. Smith and Emily Smith, the latter an instructor at San Jose State college.

Born in Hartford, Conn., in 1857, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart Smith, he received his Ph B. from Yale in 1879; M. D. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1882, and later studied at Heidelberg, Germany. After 25 years as dean of the medical school and professor of chemistry at Yale, he retired as a professor emeritus in 1910, when he came to Los Gatos to live. Funeral arrangements are awaiting the return of Miss Mary Smith from Chicago.

TRAIN KILLS WOMAN NEAR MAIN STREET

NOV 9 ~~1933~~

Mrs. Emma L. Francis, charter member and past oracle of the Los Gatos Royal Neighbors lodge, and prominent Rebekah, was struck and instantly killed yesterday morning shortly after 10 o'clock by train 34, from San Francisco, back of Templeman's, near the Elm street crossing

Mrs. Francis, who resided at the corner of Elm and University avenue, had lived here over 30 years. She was the widow of C. H. Francis, former nightwatchman and Sterling Lumber employe, who died about six years ago. She leaves two sons, Walter Francis, living at Felton, and Fred Francis, living at Santa Cruz. Her mother, who is 96 years old, lives in Texas.

Mrs. Francis was walking toward Main street, between the rails of the track. Hearing the whistle, she jumped, but not quickly enough. Dr. R. P. Gober, who was summoned at once, reported that death was instantaneous, there being a compound fracture of the skull. Her right foot was severed, but otherwise her body was not mutilated by the train. The accident, some believe, was due indirectly to city regulations against whistle blowing by the train.

The accident occurred near the spot of a similar fatal accident last year.

Mrs. Emma Francis

Funeral services were held Friday morning from the Place home for Mrs. Emma L. Francis, 66, who was killed by a Southern Pacific train as she was walking up the tracks back of Berryman's plumbing store last week Wednesday morning. Rev. Myron Cole conducted the service, the soloist being Mrs. L. G. Case, with Mrs. W. W. Clarke at the organ. Pallbearers were C. A. White, C. H. Albright, F. O. Bowman, W. O. Bruegge, W. T. Downs and L. R. Albright. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Francis, who was a native of Des Moines, Iowa, came to Los Gatos 29 years ago. She was prominent in lodge circles, a member of Hesperian Rebekahs and Evergreen Camp, Royal Neighbors. She was the widow of C. H. Francis, former night watchman here. Two sons survive Mrs. Francis, Walter C. Francis of Santa Cruz and Fred L. Francis of Felton.

Two Are Killed In Train-Auto Crash

JAN 8 - 1934

Dr. A. P. Toscano, 35, San Jose dentist, and Miss Marguerite Hourihan, 33, San Jose telephone operator, his fiance, who were killed yesterday morning when their automobile was struck and demolished by a Southern Pacific passenger train near Campbell.

LOCAL DENTIST, FIANCEE DIE IN CROSSING CRASH

Dr. A. P. Toscano, Peggy Hourihan Meet Death Returning New Year Party.

A happy new year, that was shortly to be marked by their marriage, ended in sudden death yesterday morning for Dr. A. P. Toscano, 35, prominent San Jose dentist and lodge leader, and Miss Marguerite "Peggy" Hourihan, 33, San Jose telephone operator.

The popular young couple were returning from a New Year party at Santa Cruz at the home of Dr. Toscano's father, James B. Toscano, when, the windshield of their coupe apparently fogged by driving rain, they drove into the path of a Southern Pacific passenger train at the Hamilton avenue crossing, near Campbell at 9:56 a. m.

The coupe was fearfully crushed and dragged 100 yards. Dr. Toscano died instantly and Miss Hourahan died 25 minutes later while being placed in an ambulance.

FAILED TO STOP.

E. F. Henry, engineer of the train, reported that he blew his whistle for the crossing, that the bell was ringing, and that the wig-wag was working, but the car sped onto the tracks, leaving him no time to stop.

Friends report that Dr. Toscano and Miss Hourihan had been planning to be married very shortly though a public announcement had not as yet been made. Dr. Toscano, who two months ago had been named district deputy for the Y. M. I. for San Jose and the peninsula district, was also prominent in the Observatory parlor of Native Sons, in the San Jose Elks lodge, and in the Knights of Columbus.

WERE WELL KNOWN.

Dr. Toscano resided at 1126 North Second street and had offices in the American Trust building. He had built up a large practice by his professional skill and was widely respected. His father is prominent in civic and financial affairs at Santa Cruz. His funeral arrangements are in charge of E. H. Melvin of Los Gatos. Services will be held at Santa Cruz Thursday morning.

Miss Hourihan, a native of San Francisco, resided at 61 North Sixth street. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Helen McAuliffe, also employed by the telephone company here. She also leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hourihan, and two brothers, John and Edward, all residents of Santa Margarita, and two sisters, Mrs. Marie Pincus and Mrs. Ann Fitzpatrick, residing respectively at San Luis Obispo and Seattle. Arrangements for her funeral are in charge of Amos O. Williams.

FIVE DEATHS IN YEAR.

Yesterday's accident marked the fourth and fifth casualties in which the morning San Jose-Santa Cruz train has figured in the past year.

TOSCANO—Near Campbell, Calif., January 1, 1934, Dr. Anthony P. Toscano, devoted son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Toscano, dearly beloved brother of Mrs. Melvin McRae, Mrs. Charles Kirksey, Miss Jean Toscano, Mrs. Victor William of Santa Cruz, Mrs. Julio Bartolemeoni and T. L. Toscano of Los Banos; a native of California, aged 33 years, 6 months.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Thursday), January 4, 1934, at 10 o'clock a. m. from the Wessendorf Mortuary at Santa Cruz, where services will be held under the auspices of Santa Cruz lodge No. 824, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, thence to Holy Cross church, where a requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul commencing at 10 o'clock. COMMUNITY LAST TRIBUTE TO REV. WINTLER, 62, LEADER IN CIVIC

ALL STORES WILL CLOSE TODAY FOR WINTLER FUNERAL

Act On Request Of Mayor In Respect To Popular Deceased Pastor.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 16.—All stores in Los Gatos will be closed this Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30 o'clock during the hour of funeral services for the Rev. Henry Hiram Wintler, 62, veteran pastor of the Presbyterian church who died early yesterday.

This mark of respect to one of the city's most beloved pastors was requested by Mayor Marc J. Vertin this morning, and met with instant compliance. A meeting of the Los Gatos History club scheduled for this Wednesday afternoon was called off for the same purpose, and a meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the church, scheduled for Thursday has been postponed until next month.

THREE PASTORS.

Meanwhile preparations for one of the largest funerals in Los Gatos history were being completed by E. H. Melvin. Three pastors, the Rev. E. M. Sharp, D. D., acting pastor of the local Presbyterian church where the services will be held; the Rev. Newton Preston Patterson, D. D., of San Jose, and the Rev. Elmer E. Ingram, D. D., of Santa Rosa, will have charge of the rites. Music by the church choir, by Lyman Bergtold, soloist, and a quartet, and by Miss Fern Nuss and Miss Emily Baker will be heard. Cremation at the Mountain View cemetery in Oakland will follow at 4:30 p. m.

Meeting a dying request by the Rev. Wintler, boy members and alumni of the O. K. L. O. N. club, youth organization founded by the pastor many years ago, will surround the casket as escorts, while church, club and lodge officials will serve as honorary pall bearers.

ROTARIAN AND MASON.

"Uncle Hi," as he was known to hundreds, was in active leadership of the church for nearly 26 years, until failing health last winter brought semi-retirement. A charter member of the Los Gatos Rotary club, he was also active in lodge work as a member of Los Gatos lodge No. 292, F. & A. M., and of the Scottish Rite in San Jose. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Hazel May Winter, and two daughters, Mrs. Dorothea Margaret Lupton, and Mrs. Winifred Rugh, the latter a missionary to China who returned from the far east to be at her father's bedside. Three sisters also survive.

Boys of the O. K. L. O. N. club, founded by the Rev. Wintler, served as pallbearers, surrounding the casket which was escorted by a group of representatives of the church and of the Masonic lodge, Scottish Rite bodies and Rotary club, in which he was an active member.

All Stores Close During Funeral Service for the Rev. Wintler.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 17.—"If I were looking for just one word to characterize the spirit and the preaching of Henry Hiram Wintler it would be 'Love.'"

In these words the Rev. E. M. Sharp, acting pastor of the Los Gatos Presbyterian church, paid final tribute to the Rev. Henry Wintler in funeral services for the late pastor this afternoon.

Filled to overflowing with throngs of friends and church members, the Presbyterian church, scene of the Rev. Wintler's activities for the past 26 years, became a bower of flowers as almost the entire town turned out to pay its last respects to one of the most highly regarded ministers Los Gatos has ever known.

ALL STORES CLOSED.

All stores were closed during the hour of the services, clubs and other organizations postponed meetings scheduled for this afternoon, while crowds stood ontside the church, unable to find room in the packed hall and adjoining rooms. Three ministers, the church choir, a quartet of singers and church officials joined in touching exercises.

Born at Walla Walla, Wash., May 3, 1872, Henry Hiram Wintler professed his faith just after his 17th birthday. He was educated for the ministry at Whitman college, Park college, and the San Francisco Theological seminary, later attending the McCormick, now the Presbyterian Theological seminary of Chicago, Ill. His first church was at Walla Walla, which he supplied for a year. He then served in the churches of Colusa, Oakland, Santa Clara and finally in Los Gatos, where the Presbyterian church under his guidance became one of the strongest in the presbytery. His 25th anniversary in the church here was celebrated only a few months ago, when "Uncle Hi" and "Aunt Hazel," as he and his wife were known, were honored by townspeople and church members alike in a large gathering.

BOYS PALLBEARERS.

An illness which became serious last winter proved fatal to the Rev. Wintler early Monday morning. His entire family was gathered at the bedside, including a daughter, Mrs. Winifred Rugh, who returned from her missionary post in China to be with her father in his last moments. His widow, another daughter and three sisters survive.

Boys of the O. K. L. O. N. club, founded by the Rev. Wintler, served as pallbearers, surrounding the casket which was escorted by a group of representatives of the church and of the Masonic lodge, Scottish Rite bodies and Rotary club, in which he was an active member.

Cremation at Mountain View cemetery in Oakland late this afternoon followed the services.

Mr. Wintler was a charter member. The ushers were A. R. Muir and C. F. Hamsher. The O. K. L. O. N. club attended in a body.

Stores Closed

A notable feature of the funeral was the wealth and beauty of the floral decorations, heaped over the casket, and beautifying the rostrum. Load after load of floral pieces were taken from the church, and many were broken up and utilized to make cheering bouquets for shut-ins.

The notable service of Rev. Mr. Wintler to Los Gatos was given official secular notice, by every store in Los Gatos remaining closed during the hour of the funeral, from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m.

W. R. Brown

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. David Todd Gillmor from the Melvin Chapel last Friday morning for Wayland R. Brown, of the firm of Brown and Slagle here since 1913, who died Valentine's day after an illness of almost a year. Interment was in Santa Clara cemetery. A native of Mindon, Michigan, Brown came here from Oregon, where he was head draftsman for the Coos Bay lumber company for several years. Unmarried, he was without relatives in this part of the country. He died on the eve of his 70th birthday anniversary.

Brown was widely and favorably known for his interest in work among boys and for the unfortunate. Under his guidance the Brown & Slagle store carried on a free service as an employment agency for many men employed in road work and other activities. On receiving a message from some one who had temporary work to offer, Brown would look up some man out of a job.

MAUDE BIGGS OF CAMPBELL BURIED

Special to the Mercury Herald.

CAMPBELL, Feb. 23.—A vacancy in the ranks of the faithful at the 40th Old Settlers' day celebration here yesterday was noted with sadness by many who were present.

The absent old settler was Mrs. Maude E. Biggs, 65, who was laid to her last rest in Los Gatos cemetery following services from the Melvin chapel this afternoon. She died Wednesday noon after a long illness.

Born in Mt. Eden, Cal., she was Miss Maude More before her marriage. At the age of 6 she came with her father, William A. More, to settle in the San Tomas district, where More hacked a ranch site out of the mesquite where Pollard and Quito roads now intersect. The ranch was later the site of the old Quito school, torn down shortly after the World war.

Her husband, James A. Biggs, rancher, and three children survive. Six nephews served as pall-bearers, including five brothers: Ted, Walter, George, James and Fred Smith, all of Campbell. Officers of Evergreen camp No. 4483, Royal Neighbors of America at Los Gatos, were in charge of the services.

BIGGS—Near Campbell, Cal., February 21, 1934, Maude E. Biggs, wife of James A. Biggs, mother of Mrs. Edith Martin of Los Angeles, George Biggs of San Francisco, Albert Biggs of San Jose, and sister of Charles More of Arbuckle, Cal., Miss Mattie More of San Jose and the late James More of Los Gatos; a native of Mount Eden, Cal., aged 65 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral tomorrow (Friday), at 2 p. m., from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street at Tait avenue, Los Gatos, thence to the Los Gatos Cemetery.

A charter member of Los Gatos Evergreen Camp, Royal Neighbors of America.

W. W. PEED, LUMBERMAN, DIES HERE

Los Gatos lost a business leader and a citizen of sterling worth in the death Monday afternoon of William Walker Peed, owner of the Los Gatos Lumber company. While he had been ill for some time, his condition was not considered critical, and his death came as a great shock to many who had cherished his friendship. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from the Melvin chapel. The Rev. David Todd Gillmor, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will conduct the service.

Mr. Peed was a logging engineer of wide reputation, and was the author of a book on the lumber industry used as a college text book. For 25 years he held an important place with the Hammond Lumber company, and was superintendent of its immense redwood interests at Eureka. He was for several terms president of the Pacific Logging Congress, and was regarded as a national authority on matters pertaining to the industry. As engineer, he had constructed several logging railroad lines.

Moves Here

Later he was connected with the Monterey Bay Redwood company. His family resided here for the last five years, and a couple of years ago he acquired the Los Gatos Lumber company, and made Los Gatos his home and headquarters.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. May Belle Peed, a daughter, Miss Margaret Peed, and a son, [illegible] Manufactured by [illegible]

W. W. PEED, LUMBERMAN, DIES HERE

Los Gatos lost a business leader and a citizen of sterling worth in the death Monday afternoon of William Walker Peed, owner of the Los Gatos Lumber company. While he had been ill for some time, his condition was not considered critical, and his death came as a great shock to many who had cherished his friendship. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock from the Melvin chapel. The Rev. David Todd Gillmor, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, will conduct the service.

Mr. Peed was a logging engineer of wide reputation, and was the author of a book on the lumber industry used as a college text book. For 25 years he held an important place with the Hammond Lumber company, and was superintendent of its immense redwood interests at Eureka. He was for several terms president of the Pacific Logging Congress, and was regarded as a national authority on matters pertaining to the industry. As engineer, he had constructed several logging railroad lines.

Moves Here

Later he was connected with the Monterey Bay Redwood company. His family resided here for the last five years, and a couple of years ago he acquired the Los Gatos Lumber company, and made Los Gatos his home and headquarters.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. May Belle Peed, a daughter, Miss Margaret Peed, and a son, William Peed Jr. His mother, Mrs. Irene Peed, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Cornelius, both live in Kansas City, Missouri. He was born in Plattsburg, Missouri, 56 years ago.

Frank Walsh, noted industrial engineer of Tacoma, a brother of Mrs. Peed, will be here for the funeral. Other brothers in law of the deceased are Major Arthur Walsh, U. S. A., chief officer at Vancouver barracks; Commander John Walsh, U. S. N., retired, former member of the shipping board, and now chief of the New Orleans harbor commission; and Byron Walsh, district manager of the Sinclair Oil company, Texas.

Mr. Peed was an active member of the Los Gatos Rotary club, which he was one. His remains will be shipped to Portland, Oregon, where the family has a graveyard plot.

During his lifetime Peed rose to prominence in coast lumber circles. He wrote a book on the lumber industry which came to be used as a college text. He built several logging railroads in northern California and in Oregon and for 25 years was with the Hammond Lumber company in Eureka. Several years ago he went to Santa Cruz and two years ago came here to join his family which had been living here for the previous three years.

He served three terms as president of the Pacific logging congress.

Mystery Surrounds Death of Local Man

Several mysterious circumstances, as to his name, surrounded the death Friday of an elderly man, known as William T. Edwards, in a cottage he occupied on Park avenue. Investigations by Edwin H. Melvin, of the Melvin funeral establishment, revealed that his true name was William Theodore Elmore, and that he leaves three children, Robert A. Elmore, William T. Elmore Jr. and Ruth R. Elmore. A bank book revealed deposits some years ago in a Santa Barbara bank of about $2,000.

Funeral arrangements are being postponed, in an effort to locate his children.

He is believed to have been a orld war veteran.

William T. Elmore

William T. Elmore, one time college professor, who lived obscurely in Los Gatos under the name of William T. Edwards, was laid to rest last Thursday in the Catholic cemetery at Santa Clara. The burial was in charge of the Melvin chapel.

E. H. Melvin, after diligent tracing of "William T. Edwards," who was highly respected, although apparently without money, identified him as Elmore, formerly of Santa Barbara, who served in the world war with the Canadian forces. He was 45 years old, a native of California. A daughter, Miss Ruth Elmore, lives in San Francisco.

MYSTERY MAN OF LOS GATOS DEAD

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, July 27.—A man who may be a professor and who may have money died here today, seemingly, a poor man.

He had lived a month in a cottage on Park avenue and went under the name of William T. Edwards, but Melvin's funeral chapel has evidence which points out that his name may be William Theodore Elmore.

In talks with his neighbors he led them to believe he had a daughter who attended high school and college, but who she might be or where Melvin's does not know. His neighbors also thought he might be a professor of some kind.

His only belongings he could put in his own pockets. He had in his possession a bank book which showed that 12 years ago William T., Ruth R. and Robert D. Elmore had a balance of nearly $2000 in a Santa Barbara bank. Also in his possession was an automobile operator's license issued in 1932 to William Elmore, aged 43, height five feet seven inches, brown eyes and brown hair, residence at 33 East Ortega street, Santa Barbara. A notebook had several Santa Clara valley addresses listed.

The man, who died suddenly last night, answers the description given on the license, Captain E. H. Melvin thought today.

Mystery Surrounds Death of Local Man

Several mysterious circumstances, as to his name, surrounded the death Friday of an elderly man, known as William T. Edwards, in a cottage he occupied on Park avenue. Investigations by Edwin H. Melvin, of the Melvin funeral establishment, revealed that his true name was William Theodore Elmore, and that he leaves three children, Robert A. Elmore, William T. Elmore Jr. and Ruth R. Elmore. A bank book revealed deposits some years ago in a Santa Barbara bank of about $2,000.

Funeral arrangements are being postponed, in an effort to locate his children.

He is believed to have been a world war veteran.

Mrs. Della North

Funeral services were held last week Wednesday from the Melvin chapel for the late Mrs. Della Elenora North, who died the preceding Friday at the age of 59. Rev. J. B. Dunlap conducted the funeral. Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung by Miss Fern Nuss, accompanied by Miss Emily Baker.

The pall bearers were Will Green, Ralph Creffield, Andrew Muir, C. F. Hamsher, H. R. Vowles and H. D. Baumgardner.

Della Elenora North was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 6, 1875, and was educated at Plano, Illinois, where her father moved while she was still a young child. The family had not been in Plano long when the mother was stricken and had to leave the five small children to the father's care.

Della, the oldest, was but twelve years old at the time and the baby sister was but two years. Della tried to take the mother's place, and did all she could for the little sisters and brother.

She attended grammar and high schools and graduated with high honors. Then she taught in the rural schools of Illinois for several years.

The family then moved to Chicago, where she attended business college and secured a position as bookkeeper and stenographer, later accepting a position with the Bourke-Rice Envelope company as secretary, which place she filled for 25 years.

Home Influence

Through all the years she was the comfort and helper of her father, who passed away in 1917. With father and mother both gone, she still kept the home going until she met and married Albert Delmar North in March, 1917, and then they established a home in Chicago for a while.

In November, 1928, Mr. and Mrs. North came to Los Gatos to make their home. She was a sweet, retiring character and was greatly loved by the many friends who really knew her heart of pure gold. Her greatest happiness was always found in making a home and doing things for her family and many friends. She was very fond of flowers and loved to write little verses about what she liked. She was al-be buried Monday in the Los Gatos cemetery.

The funeral services, to be held from Melvin's funeral chapel, may be postponed should relatives in the east decide to attend.

Mrs. North was a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and was the wife of Albert D. North, sister of Miss Eugenie Williams of Fairfield, Iowa; Mrs. William Gardner of Chicago; Mrs. E. F. Jungen of Syracuse, N. Y.; and George R. Town of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

NORTH—In Los Gatos, Calif., July 27, 1934, Della Eleanor North, wife of Albert D. North, sister of Miss Eugenie Williams of Fairfield, Ia.; Mrs. William Gardner of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. E. F. Jungen of Syracuse, N. Y., and George R. Town of Minneapolis, Minn.; a native of Milwaukee, Wis., aged 59 years. Friends are invited to attend the funeral on Wednesday, August 1, at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main Street, at Tait Avenue, Los Gatos. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Elsie L. Torrey Dies In Hospital

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, July 28.—Once the holder of the title of the oldest woman mail carrier in the west, if not in the United States, Miss Elsie L. Torrey, old time resident here, passed away at a San Jose hospital today.

Services will be held in Melvin's funeral chapel Monday at 2 p. m. with interment in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Miss Torrey was 77 years of age, a native of Ottowa, Illinois, and is survived by her brother, Lewis B. Torrey, local resident.

In 1906 she joined the Los Gatos postoffice force as a substitute mail carrier and held that position until six years ago. After a short career as a teacher in Wisconsin and Nebraska, she came to California 41 years ago, residing here the past 36 years.

"She has a constitution like iron and is more active than most people her age," said Postmaster Lee Darneal of her when she was on his force. "She was very capable and did her work well."

Miss Torrey was known among her friends for her ability as a story teller. She would substitute on any of the three rural mail routes here.

TORREY—In San Jose, Calif., July 28, 1934, Miss Elsie L. Torrey, sister of Lewis B. Torrey of Los Gatos; a native of Ottawa, Ill., aged 77 years.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral tomorrow, Monday, at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main Street, at Talt Avenue, Los Gatos. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Mrs. Della North

Funeral services were held last week Wednesday from the Melvin chapel for the late Mrs. Della Elenora North, who died the preceding Friday at the age of 59. Rev. J. B. Dunlap conducted the funeral. Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung by Miss Fern Nuss, accompanied by Miss Emily Baker.

The pall bearers were Will Green, Ralph Creffield, Andrew Muir, C. F. Hamsher, H. R. Vowles and H. D. Baumgardner.

Della Elenora North was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 6, 1875, and was educated at Plano, Illinois, where her father moved while she was still a young child. The family had not been in Plano long when the mother was stricken and had to leave the five small children to the father's care.

Della, the oldest, was but twelve years old at the time and the baby sister was but two years. Della tried to take the mother's place, and did all she could for the little sisters and brother.

She attended grammar and high schools and graduated with high honors. Then she taught in the rural schools of Illinois for several years.

The family then moved to Chicago, where she attended business college and secured a position as bookkeeper and stenographer, later accepting a position with the Bourke-Rice Envelope company as secretary, which place she filled for 25 years.

Home Influence

Through all the years she was the comfort and helper of her father, who passed away in 1917. With father and mother both gone, she still kept the home going until she met and married Albert Delmar North in March, 1917, and then they established a home in Chicago for a while.

In November, 1928, Mr. and Mrs. North came to Los Gatos to make their home. She was a sweet, retiring character and was greatly loved by the many friends who really knew her heart of pure gold. Her greatest happiness was always found in making a home and doing things for her family and many friends. She was very fond of flowers and loved to write little verses about what she liked. She was al- [illegible] be buried Monday in the Los Gatos cemetery.

The funeral services, to be held from Melvin's funeral chapel, may be postponed should relatives in the east decide to attend.

Mrs. North was a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and was the wife of Albert D. North, sister of Miss Eugenie Williams of Fairfield, Iowa; Mrs. William Gardner of Chicago; Mrs. E. F. Jungen of Syracuse, N. Y.; and George R. Town of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Elsie L. Torrey Dies In Hospital

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, July 28.—Once the holder of the title of the oldest woman mail carrier in the west, if not in the United States, Miss Elsie L. Torrey, old time resident here, passed away at a San Jose hospital today.

Services will be held in Melvin's funeral chapel Monday at 2 p. m. with interment in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Miss Torrey was 77 years of age, a native of Ottowa, Illinois, and is survived by her brother, Lewis B. Torrey, local resident.

In 1906 she joined the Los Gatos postoffice force as a substitute mail carrier and held that position until six years ago. After a short career as a teacher in Wisconsin and Nebraska, she came to California 41 years ago, residing here the past 36 years.

"She has a constitution like iron and is more active than most people her age," said Postmaster Lee Darneal of her when she was on his force. "She was very capable and did her work well."

Miss Torrey was known among her friends for her ability as a story teller. She would substitute on any of the three rural mail routes here.

NORTH—In Los Gatos, Calif., July 27, 1934, Della Eleanor North, wife of Albert D. North, sister of Miss Eugenie Williams of Fairfield, Ia.; Mrs. William Gardner of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. E. F. Jungen of Syracuse, N. Y., and George R. Town of Minneapolis, Minn.; a native of Milwaukee, Wis., aged 59 years. Friends are invited to attend the funeral on Wednesday, August 1, at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main Street, at Tait Avenue, Los Gatos. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Mrs. Della North

Funeral services were held last week Wednesday from the Melvin chapel for the late Mrs. Della Elenora North, who died the preceding Friday at the age of 59. Rev. J. B. Dunlap conducted the funeral. Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung by Miss Fern Nuss, accompanied by Miss Emily Baker.

The pall bearers were Will Green, Ralph Creffield, Andrew Muir, C. F. Hamsher, H. R. Vowles and H. D. Baumgardner.

Della Elenora North was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 6, 1875, and was educated at Plano, Illinois, where her father moved while she was still a young child. The family had not been in Plauo long when the mother was stricken and had to leave the five small children to the father's care.

Della, the oldest, was but twelve years old at the time and the baby sister was but two years. Della tried to take the mother's place, and did all she could for the little sisters and brother.

She attended grammar and high schools and graduated with high honors. Then she taught in the rural schools of Illinois for several years.

The family then moved to Chicago, where she attended business college and secured a position as bookkeeper and stenographer, later accepting a position with the Bourke-Rice Envelope company as secretary, which place she filled for 25 years.

Home Influence

Through all the years she was the comfort and helper of her father, who passed away in 1917. With father and mother both gone, she still kept the home going until she met and married Albert Delmar North in March, 1917, and then they established a home in Chicago for a while.

In November, 1928, Mr. and Mrs. North came to Los Gatos to make their home. She was a sweet, retiring character and was greatly loved by the many friends who really knew her heart of pure gold. Her greatest happiness was always found in making a home and doing things for her family and many friends. She was very fond of flowers and loved to write little verses about what she liked. She was always very appreciative of any kindness she received.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, A. D. North, and three sisters and one brother, Mrs. W. H. Gardner of Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. E. F. Jungen of Syracuse, New York, Miss Eugenie Williams of Fairfield, Iowa; and George R. Towne of Minneapolis, Minnesota; also six nieces and nephews.

Mr. North is a brother of Mrs. B. W. West and the late Fred C. North of Los Gatos, and Mrs. Robert N. Ward of Chicago, Illinois.

Through all the years she was the comfort and helper of her father, who passed away in 1917. With father and mother both gone, she still kept the home going until she met and married Albert Delmar North in March, 1917, and then they established a home in Chicago for a while.

In November, 1928, Mr. and Mrs. North came to Los Gatos to make their home. She was a sweet, retiring character and was greatly loved by the many friends who really knew her heart of pure gold. Her greatest happiness was always found in making a home and doing things for her family and many friends. She was very fond of flowers and loved to write little verses about what she liked. She was always very appreciative of any kindness she received.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, A. D. North, and three sisters and one brother, Mrs. W. H. Gardner of Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. E. F. Jungen of Syracuse, New York, Miss Eugenie Williams of Fairfield, Iowa; and George R. Towne of Minneapolis, Minnesota; also six nieces and nephews.

Mr. North is a brother of Mrs. B. W. West and the late Fred C. North of Los Gatos, and Mrs. Robert N. Ward of Chicago, Illinois.

ELSIE L. TORREY FUNERAL RITES HELD YESTERDAY

Noted Woman Mail Carrier Laid To Last Rest In City Cemetery.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, July 30.—Miss Elsie L. Torrey, for many years a substitute rural mail carrier from the local post office, was laid to rest in the Los Gatos cemetery today after services in Melvin's funeral chapel where Rev. J. B. Dunlap officiated.

Having owned a small orchard on Shannon road, she lived there in comparative retirement since she left the post office force six years ago. She passed away at a San Jose hospital Saturday after a short illness.

A duet was sung today by the Misses Emily Baker and Fern Nuss. Pall bearers were Andrew Muir, Ralph Creffield, Lute White, Henry Lupton, William Fitch and Robert Martin.

In 1906 she found time to join the postoffice force as a substitute rural mail carrier. Swollen streams, bad weather and petty illnesses were no barrier between herself and her job, declared Postmaster Lee Darneal. During the last 10 years of her connection with the postoffice she lost only two days of work—once when thrown from her buggy while fording the Los Gatos creek during a downpour, and again when she fell while getting out of her buggy.

Once her horse balked at crossing a swollen stream, Postmaster Darneal tells, so she took off her shoes and stockings, got out of her "rig" and waded across the stream, leading her horse. "She was very efficient," said he.

Communism is getting no foot-

f the ideas submitted by the lead-of the younger generation.

Although the judges have not yet entirely completed their review of the thousands of essays submitted, preliminary readings prove conclusively that all contestants who wrote on the government of the

It is evident from the thoughts expressed in the essays that the

California's youth, of 18 years and

Mrs. Della North

Funeral services were held last week Wednesday from the Melvin chapel for the late Mrs. Della Elenora North, who died the preceding Friday at the age of 59. Rev. J. B. Dunlap conducted the funeral. Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung by Miss Fern Nuss, accompanied by Miss Emily Baker.

The pall bearers were Will Green, Ralph Creffield, Andrew Muir, C. F. Hamsher, H. R. Vowles and H. D. Baumgardner.

Della Elenora North was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 6, 1875, and was educated at Plano, Illinois, where her father moved while she was still a young child. The family had not been in Plano long when the mother was stricken and had to leave the five small children to the father's care.

Della, the oldest, was but twelve years old at the time and the baby sister was but two years. Della tried to take the mother's place, and did all she could for the little sisters and brother.

She attended grammar and high schools and graduated with high honors. Then she taught in the rural schools of Illinois for several years.

The family then moved to Chicago, where she attended business college and secured a position as bookkeeper and stenographer, later accepting a position with the Bourke-Rice Envelope company as secretary, which place she filled for 25 years.

Home Influence

Through all the years she was the comfort and helper of her father, who passed away in 1917. With father and mother both gone, she still kept the home going until she met and married Albert Delmar North in March, 1917, and then they established a home in Chicago for a while.

TORREY—In San Jose, Calif., July 28, 1934, Miss Elsie L. Torrey, sister of Lewis B. Torrey of Los Gatos; a native of Ottawa, Ill., aged 77 years.
Friends are invited to attend the funeral tomorrow, Monday, at 2 p. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main Street, at Tait Avenue, Los Gatos. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

ELSIE L. TORREY FUNERAL RITES HELD YESTERDAY

Noted Woman Mail Carrier Laid To Last Rest In City Cemetery.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, July 30.—Miss Elsie L. Torrey, for many years a substitute rural mail carrier from the local post office, was laid to rest in the Los Gatos cemetery today after services in Melvin's funeral chapel where Rev. J. B. Dunlap officiated.

Having owned a small orchard on Shannon road, she lived there in comparative retirement since she left the post office force six years ago. She passed away at a San Jose hospital Saturday after a short illness.

A duet was sung today by the Misses Emily Baker and Fern Nuss. Pall bearers were Andrew Muir, Ralph Creffield, Lute White, Henry Lupton, William Fitch and Robert Martin.

In 1906 she found time to join the postoffice force as a substitute rural mail carrier. Swollen streams, bad weather and petty illnesses were no barrier between herself and her job, declared Postmaster Lee Darneal. During the last 10 years of her connection with the postoffice she lost only two days of work—once when thrown from her buggy while fording the Los Gatos creek during a downpour, and again when she fell while getting out of her buggy.

Once her horse balked at crossing a swollen stream, Postmaster Darneal tells, so she took off her shoes and stockings, got out of her "rig" and waded across the stream, leading her horse. "She was very efficient," said he.

Miss Elsie Torrey

Miss Elsie Torrey, for more than 20 years a member of the rural carrier force of the Los Gatos post office, died Saturday in the San Jose hospital, at the age of 77. Her death removes a well beloved character, who made and held many friends. She was famous for her ability as a story teller and for her ability in handling rural mail. During Postmaster Lee Darneal's first term, in the Wilson administration, Miss Torrey had probably the longest rural route handled by any woman, and for years she was known as the oldest rural carrier in the country. She would substitute on any of the rural routes here.

Born in Ottawa, Illinois, Miss Torrey for several years was a teacher in Wisconsin and Nevada. She came to California 41 years ago, and was a resident here for 36 years.

Capable Employe

She joined the Los Gatos post office force in 1906, and was connected with it until six years ago. Postmaster Lee Darneal said of her work, "She had a constitution of iron, and was very capable." Once when her horse balked at a stream, she took off her stockings and led the horse through the ford.

Miss Torrey's sole surviving resident is Lewis B. Torrey, of Los Gatos.

At the largely attended funeral services held Monday afternoon in the Melvin chapel, Rev. J. B. Dunlap spoke of her life of cheerfulness and service. Her favorite hymns were sung by Miss Emily Baker and Miss Fern Nuss.

The pallbearers at her funeral were Andrew Muir, Ralph Creffield, Lute White, Henry Lupton, William Fitch and Robert Martin.

Los Gatos

'COVERED WAGON BABY.' DIES AT 84

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 3.—Mrs. Amelia Moore, who crossed the plains between Iowa and California when three years old, passed away Sunday evening. She was not able to withstand the shock of fracturing her leg a week ago when she fell while watering the lawn.

Services will be held at the Melvin funeral chapel at 10 o'clock, with interment in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Moore remembered only her life with her family near Visalia, and later at Hayward and Los Gatos, for she was too young to have any impressions of the crossing of the continent. She and her family left Visalia because of her husband's health. He died shortly after they moved here eight years ago.

Mrs. Moore was the mother of Orlando, Ed and Val Moore of Visalia; Charles Moore of Salem, Oregon; William Moore and Mrs. Celeste Light of Berkeley; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert of San Francisco; and Mrs. Gertrude Steiner of Los Gatos.

Stories told her by her mother and the contents of a diary kept daily by her father gave her a vivid impression of the hardships she, a baby, was not able to remember. She said, "Now, by autos, they can travel a long distance in a few days, but it took us seven months to make the trip."

Her father's diary revealed, "We started from Iowa on Tuesday, April 19, 1853, in an old-fashioned covered wagon, along with many other families and the longest distance traveled any one day was about 23 miles. We reached Missouri bottom May 12 and crossed the river with our wagons May 19 on a flat boat and crossed our cattle on the steam ferry May 21. Our ferriage was 50 cents per wagon and 30 cents per head of cattle. May 30 we drove to Elkhorn and crossed, paying $3 per wagon for ferriage, and swam our cattle."

Each morning the family milked a brindle cow they took with them and hung the milk bucket, tightly covered, on one of the bows of the wagon cover, and at night they would take butter from the bucket as well as milk which was still sweet for drinking.

The cow became tender hoofed and had to be left behind, but, probably by walking all night, she was found in camp each morning. In that manner the cow reached California and lived long enough to be milked by Mrs. Moore, she remembers.

Sometimes camp had to be pitched where there was no water, so next morning the train would move on for several hours to water before either oxen or humans would eat breakfast. Other times Mrs. Moore's mother would walk up a hill with her youngest child, a girl seven months old, in one arm and help push the wagon with the other.

Occasionally they would stop for a day or two to bake bread, rest up or wash clothes. In one place they found hot and cold water gushing from springs and took the opportunity to do laundry on a wholesale scale.

Summoned on Last Journey

Mrs. Amelia Moore, 84, well known Los Gatos woman who died Sunday night from shock which followed a leg fracture sustained in a recent fall. As a child of three she crossed the plains in a covered wagon from Iowa to California with her parents.

MOORE—In San Jose, Calif., September 2, 1934, Amelia Moore, loving mother of Orlando, Ed and Val Moore of Visalia; Charles Moore of Salem, Oregon; William Moore and Mrs. Celeste Light of Berkeley; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert of San Francisco, and Mrs. Gertrude Steiner of Los Gatos; a native of Iowa, aged 83 years, 6 months and 19 days.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Tuesday), September 4, 1934, at 10 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street, corner of Tait avenue, Los Gatos, Calif. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Services Held For Mrs. Moore

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 4.—Last rites were held tday for Mrs. Amelia Moore, aged 83, a "covered wagon baby" and resident of this section for eight years, who died last Sunday night from effects of a broken hip she suffered while watering the lawn a week ago.

Rev. Myron C. Cole, in whose Christian church she was a constant worker, officiated at the ceremonies in the Melvin funeral chapel. "The Melodiers"—Clarence Herndon, Warren Hammond, Charles Phillips and Rev. Cole—sang to the accompaniment of Mrs. Cole.

Pallbearers were Lawrence Herndon, J. W. Herndon, Wayland Phillips, Charles Phillips, Homer Stephens and Warren Hammond. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Moore crossed the plains from Iowa with her parents when she was three years old and was one of the last "covered wagon babies." Her parents settled near Visalia, where she grew to womanhood, married and raised a family. Her husband's illness caused the family to move to Hayward shortly before coming here eight years ago.

Los Gatos

'COVERED WAGON BABY.' DIES AT 84

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 3.—Mrs. Amelia Moore, who crossed the plains between Iowa and California when three years old, passed away Sunday evening. She was not able to withstand the shock of fracturing her leg a week ago when she fell while watering the lawn.

Services will be held at the Melvin funeral chapel at 10 o'clock, with interment in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Moore remembered only her life with her family near Visalia, and later at Hayward and Los Gatos, for she was too young to have any impressions of the crossing of the continent. She and her family left Visalia because of her husband's health. He died shortly after they moved here eight years ago.

Mrs. Moore was the mother of Orlando, Ed and Val Moore of Visalia; Charles Moore of Salem, Oregon; William Moore and Mrs. Celeste Light of Berkeley; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert of San Francisco; and Mrs. Gertrude Steiner of Los Gatos.

Stories told her by her mother and the contents of a diary kept daily by her father gave her a vivid impression of the hardships she, a baby, was not able to remember. She said, "Now, by autos, they can travel a long distance in a few days, but it took us seven months to make the trip."

Her father's diary revealed, "We started from Iowa on Tuesday, April 19, 1853, in an old-fashioned covered wagon, along with many other families and the longest distance traveled any one day was about 23 miles. We reached Missouri bottom May 12 and crossed the river with our wagons May 19 on a flat boat and crossed our cattle on the steam ferry May 21. Our ferriage was 50 cents per wagon and 30 cents per head of cattle. May 30 we drove to Elkhorn and crossed, paying $3 per wagon for ferriage, and swam our cattle."

Each morning the family milked a brindle cow they took with them and hung the milk bucket, tightly covered, on one of the bows of the wagon cover, and at night they would take butter from the bucket as well as milk which was still sweet for drinking.

The cow became tender hoofed and had to be left behind, but, probably by walking all night, she was found in camp each morning. In that manner the cow reached California and lived long enough to be milked by Mrs. Moore, she remembers.

Sometimes camp had to be pitched where there was no water, so next morning the train would move on for several hours to water before either oxen or humans would eat breakfast. Other times Mrs. Moore's mother would walk up a hill with her youngest child, a girl seven months old, in one arm and help push the wagon with the other.

Occasionally they would stop for a day or two to bake bread, rest up or wash clothes. In one place they found hot and cold water gushing from springs and took the opportunity to do laundry on a wholesale scale.

Summoned on Last Journey

Mrs. Amelia Moore, 84, well known Los Gatos woman who died Sunday night from shock which followed a leg fracture sustained in a recent fall. As a child of three she crossed the plains in a covered wagon from Iowa to California with her parents.

MOORE—In San Jose, Calif., September 2, 1934, Amelia Moore, loving mother of Orlando, Ed and Val Moore of Visalia; Charles Moore of Salem, Oregon; William Moore and Mrs. Celeste Light of Berkeley; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert of San Francisco, and Mrs. Gertrude Steiner of Los Gatos; a native of Iowa, aged 83 years, 6 months and 19 days.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Tuesday), September 4, 1934, at 10 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street, corner of Tait avenue, Los Gatos, Calif. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Services Held For Mrs. Moore

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 4.—Last rites were held tday for Mrs. Amelia Moore, aged 83, a "covered wagon baby" and resident of this section for eight years, who died last Sunday night from effects of a broken hip she suffered while watering the lawn a week ago.

Rev. Myron C. Cole, in whose Christian church she was a constant worker, officiated at the ceremonies in the Melvin funeral chapel. "The Melodiers"—Clarence Herndon, Warren Hammond, Charles Phillips and Rev. Cole—sang to the accompaniment of Mrs. Cole.

Pallbearers were Lawrence Herndon, J. W. Herndon, Wayland Phillips, Charles Phillips, Homer Stephens and Warren Hammond. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Moore crossed the plains from Iowa with her parents when she was three years old and was one of the last "covered wagon babies." Her parents settled near Visalia, where she grew to womanhood, married and raised a family. Her husband's illness caused the family to move to Hayward shortly before coming here eight years ago.

Mrs. Amelia Moore, "Covered Wagon" Baby, Passes Away

Los Gatos lost a much beloved and highly respected citizen Sunday evening when Mrs. Amelia Moore died in a San Jose sanitarium from the effects of a fall, a few days before, in the garden of her home on Bella Vista avenue. Mrs. Moore's hip was broken, and the shock was too great for her advanced age of 83 years and six months.

The funeral, held Tuesday morning from the Melvin chapel, was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Myron Cole, pastor of the Christian church, of which she was an active member. The Christian church male quartet, consisting of Clarence Herndon, Rev. Cole, Warren Hammond and Charles Phillips, sang several of her favorite hymns. The pall bearers were Charles Phillips, Warren Hammond, Homer Stephens, Wayland Phillips, J. W. Herndon and Lawrence Herndon.

Pioneer Family

The daughter of pioneer parents Mrs. Moore crossed the plains when she was three. Her recollections were limited to life after she arrived in California, and lived at Visalia and Hayward, and for the last eight years, Los Gatos. A diary kept by her father furnished a vivid story of the transcontinental trip, which took seven months where now motorists cross in a few days.

The party started from Iowa on Tuesday, April 19, 1853. They reached the Missouri bottom on May 12, and on the 19th were ferried over, at 50 cents per wagon, and 30 cents per head for cattle. On May 30 they were ferried at Elkton, at $3 per wagon, but the cattle swam over. The party got fresh milk from a brindle cow which en route became tender-hoofed, but which by travelling at night finished the trip with the party and lived long enough to be milked in California by Mrs. Moore.

Some times the wagon would stop on an up grade and Mrs. Moore's mother would walk with her youngest, a seven-months' old baby, on arm while she pushed with the other, to help the wagon up hill. At intervals the trip would be interrupted for a day or two, for the baking of bread and washing of clothes.

Mrs. Moore was the mother of Orlando, Ed and Val Moore of Visalia; Charles Moore of Salem, Oregon; William Moore and Mrs. Celeste Light of Berkeley; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert of San Francisco; and Mrs. Gertrude Steiner of Los Gatos.

LOS GATOS, Sept. 4.—Last rites were held tday for Mrs. Amelia Moore, aged 83, a "covered wagon baby" and resident of this section for eight years, who died last Sunday night from effects of a broken hip she suffered while watering the lawn a week ago.

Rev. Myron C. Cole, in whose Christian church she was a constant worker, officiated at the ceremonies in the Melvin funeral chapel. "The Melodiers"—Clarence Herndon, Warren Hammond, Charles Phillips and Rev. Cole—sang to the accompaniment of Mrs. Cole.

Pallbearers were Lawrence Herndon, J. W. Herndon, Wayland Phillips, Charles Phillips, Homer Stephens and Warren Hammond. Interment was in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Mrs. Moore crossed the plains from Iowa with her parents when she was three years old and was one of the last "covered wagon babies." Her parents settled near Visalia, where she grew to womanhood, married and raised a family. Her husband's illness caused the family to move to Hayward shortly before coming here eight years ago.

MOORE—In San Jose, Calif., September 2, 1934, Amelia Moore, loving mother of Orlando, Ed and Val Moore of Visalia; Charles Moore of Salem, Oregon; William Moore and Mrs. Celeste Light of Berkeley; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert of San Francisco, and Mrs. Gertrude Steiner of Los Gatos; a native of Iowa, aged 83 years, 6 months and 19 days.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral today (Tuesday), September 4, 1934, at 10 a. m. from the Melvin Funeral Chapel, 300 West Main street, corner of Tait avenue, Los Gatos, Calif. Interment Los Gatos Cemetery.

Gardener Shoots Self, Dies In Hospital

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Nov. 10.—A self-inflicted wound caused by a .25-calibre automatic at 9 a. m. today proved fatal to Antonio Faletto, 32, a gardener on the Benjamin J. Older place on the Withey road.

What prompted Faletto to take his life is not definitely known although it was discovered he had suffered from stomach ulcers.

His friends said he had threatened for years to commit suicide and during the past several days had acted strangely.

He shot himself in the head in the employe's house on the Older place, was taken to the county hospital by the Melvin ambulance and died three hours later after losing a large quantity of blood.

Given a vacation from November 1 to 15, Faletto left the Older place but returned last Thursday evening. A substitute gardener who had known Faletto for seven years said Faletto had been on a drinking spree Wednesday night but that when he appeared Thursday night he was sober but in low spirits.

He kept talking of a "gang" of three men in San Jose he was going to "get," and then commit suicide. Thursday night he retired early but next day he wandered around the Older place, it is reported, and acted peculiarly.

At 3:30 this morning the substitute gardener heard Faletto rise and go into the kitchen of the gardener's house. Faletto then burned some papers and seemingly retired. Fifteen minutes later he appeared in the doorway with a gun aimed at his head and said goodbye to his helper.

But the assistant persuaded Faletto not to take his own life and then rushed to call a neighbor. Faletto quieted down and was resting until after 8 o'clock this morning. At 9 o'clock the assistant gardener went to the cottage and found Faletto had shot himself behind the right ear and was writhing in pain.

Smears of blood about the room in which the deed was done showed Faletto had suffered intensely and had bled freely.

He was a native of Italy and a war veteran. He came to this country 12 years ago and was in the employ of Olders for 10 years. In a will he left several thousand dollars in cash and securities to his two sisters and brother in Italy. Another brother is thought to have committed suicide in Italy several years ago.

Constable E. O. Woods investigated.

FUNERAL TODAY FOR WAKEFIELD, NOTED SURGEON

Services Will Be Held This Morning At Melvin's At Los Gatos.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Dec. 5.—Funeral services for Dr. William Francis Beatty Wakefield, 68, famous Pacific coast physician and surgeon, who is credited with introducing "twilight sleep" into west coast obstetrics, will be held from the Melvin funeral chapel here this Thursday at 10:30 a. m.

Dr. Wakefield, M. B., M. D., C. M. and F. A. C. S., died yesterday at his home here following a 10-year retirement from the medical practice in San Francisco. Much of his work in San Francisco was done in connection with the Wakefield sanitarium, established shortly before the war, but now known as the Sutter hospital.

STUDIED ABROAD.

He was the first white child born at Parry Sound, the Ontario, Canada, town established by his mother's parents, and is a member of the famous Beatty family, operators of the Canadian steamship line.

A graduate from the University of Trinity college, Toronto, he has studied in the Mayo brothers institute, the Johns Hopkins hospital, in Berlin, in Vienna, and other schools.

In 1893 he was licensed to practice in California and set up offices in San Diego. Three years later he went to Oakland and practiced there for six years before moving to San Francisco. He retired in 1924 and superintended the construction of a home for himself and family on Overlook road here.

DELEGATE TO ROME.

An honorary fellowship in the American College of Surgeons was conferred on him in 1928. He was also a member of the American Gynecological society. In 1903 he was delegated to represent the California doctors in a meeting in Rome.

Dr. Wakefield is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sara Elizabeth Wakefield; his daughter, Miss Jean Wakefield, a singer over KYA, and a sister, Mrs. A. T. Robinson of Brooklyn, N. Y.

LAST RITES HELD FOR DR. WAKEFIELD

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Dec. 6.—With his San Francisco medical associates, family members and friends in attendance, funeral services were held today for Dr. William Francis Beatty Wakefield, noted physician and surgeon.

Rev. David Todd Gillmor of St. Luke's Episcopal church officiated at services held at Melvin's Funeral chapel. Interment will be later in the family mausoleum in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Dr. Wakefield retired ten years ago because of ill health, came to Los Gatos and superintended the construction of a home after he had distinguished himself as a San Francisco obstetrician and gynecologist.

By making annual trips to the east to attend doctors' meetings, he familiarized himself with the latest advancements in his line and is credited with introducing "twilight sleep" into west coast obstetrics.

A graduate from the Trinity college of medicine in Toronto in 1893, he was licensed the same year to practice medicine in this state. During his career he was distinguished at various times by his fellow physicians. The latest was his election to an honorary fellowship in the American College of Surgeons in 1928.

He is survived by his widow and a daughter.

CHEERFUL RITES FOR PHYSICIAN

In accordance with the last wishes of the deceased, the note of sorrow was avoided in the funeral of the late Dr. W. Francis B. Wakefield, held Thursday from the Melvin chapel on West Main street. Episcopal prayers for the dead were read by Rev. David Todd Gillmor, rector of St. Luke's, but the note of cheer and philosophical optimism was emphasized in other parts of the service. The body was laid in the family mausoleum in the Los Gatos cemetery.

In place of hymns of sorrow, "Trees" and "Where My Caravan Has Rested" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Gillmor, the accompaniment being played by Mrs. A. R. Gustafson.

Cheerful Philosophy

Instead of the usual obituary address, excerpts from a manuscript book by Dr. Wakefield were read. This book of philosophy entitled "Frank's Whisperings from the Cats," emphasized the value of entertaining only thoughts of cheer and helpfulness, rather than fixing one's attention on the shadows of life.

A distinguished physician and surgeon, Dr. Waflefield was a fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and an honorary fellow of the American Gynecological society. He founded and conducted for 16 years the well known Wakefield sanitarium in San Francisco before retiring here in 1924. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sara Elizabeth Wakefield, and by a daughter, Miss Jean Wakefield, a prominent soloist over radio circuits.

Born in Canada

The first white child born in Parry Sound, Ontario, a town established by his mother's parents, he attended Trinity college, Toronto. After his graduation there, he continued his studies in the Mayo brothers institute, the Johns Hopkins hospital, and in Berlin and Vienna.

He was credited with introducing the "twilight sleep" in obstetrical practice on the Pacific coast.

CHEERFUL RITES FOR PHYSICIAN

In accordance with the last wishes of the deceased, the note of sorrow was avoided in the funeral of the late Dr. W. Francis B. Wakefield, held Thursday from the Melvin chapel on West Main street. Episcopal prayers for the dead were read by Rev. David Todd Gillmor, rector of St. Luke's, but the note of cheer and philosophical optimism was emphasized in other parts of the service. The body was laid in the family mausoleum in the Los Gatos cemetery.

In place of hymns of sorrow, "Trees" and "Where My Caravan Has Rested" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Gillmor, the accompaniment being played by Mrs. A. R. Gustafson.

Cheerful Philosophy

Instead of the usual obituary address, excerpts from a manuscript book by Dr. Wakefield were read. This book of philosophy entitled "Frank's Whisperings from the Cats," emphasized the value of entertaining only thoughts of cheer and helpfulness, rather than fixing one's attention on the shadows of life.

A distinguished physician and surgeon, Dr. Wafiefield was a fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and an honorary fellow of the American Gynecological society. He founded and conducted for 16 years the well known Wakefield sanitarium in San Francisco before retiring here in 1924. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sara Elizabeth Wakefield, and by a daughter, Miss Jean Wakefield, a prominent soloist over radio circuits.

Born in Canada

The first white child born in Parry Sound, Ontario, a town established by his mother's parents, he attended Trinity college, Toronto. After his graduation there he continued his studies in the Mayo brothers institute, the Johns Hopkins hospital, and in Berlin and Vienna.

He was credited with introducing the "twilight sleep" in obstetrical practice on the Pacific coast.

AGED BACHELOR OF ALMA HIT BY AUTO NEAR DEATH

Accident Laid To Eccentric's Habit Of Walking Road Regardless Of Cars.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 23.—Frank Miguet, 72, resident of Alma in the mountains south of here for some 40 years, lay near death in the county hospital tonight after being struck by an automobile. Near midnight he was still unconscious, in a serious condition because of shock and a possible skull fracture.

About 8:30 o'clock tonight L. C. Jeppeson of San Francisco, accompanied by his wife, drove his southbound car around a sharp turn in the highway near the Alma store and was horrified to find Frank Miguet walking there, his back to the approaching car. Jeppesen was unable to stop his car quickly enough. Constable Owen Wood, who investigated the accident, said it seemed unavoidable.

After receiving emergency treatment from Dr. William Harder the injured man was rushed to the county hospital in a Melvin ambulance.

A bachelor, Miguet lived alone, and frequently walked the highways regardless of traffic, it is said. Two months ago the San Jose police rescued him from the traffic in the Alameda subway, into which he had wandered. As far as is known, his only relative in this vicinity is a sister living in San Francisco.

Special to the Mercury Herald.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 24.—Injuries sustained last night when he was struck by an auto on the highway near Alma proved fatal this morning to Frank Miguet, 72, at the county hospital.

Miguet, known at Alma, where he had resided for the past 40 years, as an eccentric, was struck by a machine driven by L. C. Peppeson of San Francisco. The accident occurred as Jeppeson was rounding a sharp turn in the highway. Miquet, his back turned, was directly in his path, Jeppeson told investigating Officer Constable Owen Wood, and he was unable to stop his machine before striking the aged man.

A bachelor, Miquet, lived alone, and frequently walked the highways regardless of traffic, it is said. Two months ago the San Jose police rescued him from the traffic in the Alameda subway, into which he had wandered. As far as is known, his only relative in this vicinity is a sister living in San Francisco.

AGED BACHELOR OF ALMA HIT BY AUTO NEAR DEATH

Accident Laid To Eccentric's Habit Of Walking Road Regardless Of Cars.

LOS GATOS, Jan. 23.—Frank Miguet, 72, resident of Alma in the mountains south of here for some 40 years, lay near death in the county hospital tonight after being struck by an automobile. Near midnight he was still unconscious, in a serious condition because of shock and a possible skull fracture.

About 8:30 o'clock tonight L. C. Jeppeson of San Francisco, accompanied by his wife, drove his southbound car around a sharp turn in the highway near the Alma store and was horrified to find Frank Miguet walking there, his back to the approaching car. Jeppesen was unable to stop his car quickly enough. Constable Owen Wood, who investigated the accident, said it seemed unavoidable.

After receiving emergency treatment from Dr. William Harder the injured man was rushed to the county hospital in a Melvin ambulance.

A bachelor, Miguet lived alone, and frequently walked the highways regardless of traffic, it is said. Two months ago the San Jose police rescued him from the traffic in the Alameda subway, into which he had wandered. As far as is known, his only relative in this vicinity is a sister living in San Francisco.

Ranch Worker Takes Own Life

Special to the Mercury Herald.

SARATOGA, May 4.—Despondent over ill health that caused him great pain for many years, Harold B. Richardson, 41, killed himself with a .32 caliber revolver this morning at the Bogart ranch, on Wardell road near Saratoga, where he had lived for the past 11 years.

A note addressed to his wife was found by Harry Bogart in which Richardson thanked the family for its kindness to him in the past and explained his act as the "best way out of his suffering."

Chief Deputy Coroner Louis Provenzano, Undersheriff Harry Schumann and Deputy Sheriff James O'Dell investigated. They found that Richardson died instantly after a bullet from the revolver pierced his left side near the heart and emerged near his backbone to lodge in a pillow on the bed.

The note asked that Richardson's mother in Chicago be notified of his death. Melvin's of Los Gatos took charge of the body.
